CLEMENCY FOR MOONEY IS ASKED BY PRESIDENT

Wilson Wires to the Governor Urging a Stay of Execution of Man Awaiting Penalty of Death in Bomb Case

ACTION IS DUE TO FEDERAL BOARD'S VIEW

Stand of Chief Executive of Nation in Case That Stirred Labor of World Has Few Precedents; Stephens Silent

BULLETIN.
SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Cal., March 29.—Governor William D. Stephens, passing through here on his way to San Francisco, was the view of the fourth division of the national army at Camp Kearny today, was asked for some statement on President Wilson's telegraphic appeal for executive clemency for Thomas J. Mooney, but he had nothing to say.

Governor Stephens was accompanied by Mayor E. T. Woodman of Los Angeles and Los Angeles county and city officials. The party was expected to reach Camp Kearny before noon.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—President Wilson has telegraphed Governor William D. Stephens of California asking executive clemency for Thomas J. Mooney, now under death sentence, it became known here today. Mooney was convicted of murder in connection with a bomb explosion in San Francisco in a preparedness parade July 22, 1916, which caused the death of ten persons and injured forty others.

It was learned here today that the President's telegram to the governor expressing his hope that the state executive, in view of the fact that the labor agitator now rests, would see fit to take some action that would prevent a possible miscarriage of justice. The text of the message has not been made available, but it is understood the President made it plain that he was impressed by the findings of his special commission appointed to study the case, and which found grave evidence that Mooney had been framed by a fair trial.

Executive clemency was Mooney's only hope, the State Supreme Court, which is confined to questions of law in reviewing murder cases, having rejected his appeal for a new trial.

Several avenues of action are open to Governor Stephens should he decide to extend executive clemency to Mooney. It was pointed out here today that Mooney might be granted a full pardon, or the sentence might be commuted to life imprisonment or a shorter term.

It would be possible also to grant a reprieve of sufficient length to make it possible to try Mooney on some of the other indictments pending against him in the same case, it was said.

SAY DOUBT IS CAST ON STATE'S EVIDENCE
President Wilson received a special report on the Mooney case from the Labor Mediation Commission, which investigated it while on the Pacific coast, and reported, among other things, that while the official record of the trial might be flawless as the State Supreme Court afterward found, the testimony of witnesses for the state had been changed from the trial as the various defendants in the case were arraigned, and for this reason doubt was cast on the validity of their evidence. One man, admittedly the prosecution's star witness, later was prosecuted for subornation of perjury, but was acquitted.

SENATORS FAVOR WAR TRAINING FOR BOYS OF 19 YEARS

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Preliminary to a final vote today the Senate apparently favored an amendment to the draft bill which would provide for compulsory military training of youths between 18 and 21 years old by defeating, 35 to 32, a motion by Senator Jones of Washington to table it.

The draft treaties with Great Britain and Canada, sent to the Senate several weeks ago and then withdrawn at President Wilson's request for revision, again were near completion today.

TREATY CHANGES.
Members of the Senate foreign relations committee arranged a conference today with Secretary of State Lansing to examine the changes made in the treaties by the State Department and the British embassy since they were withdrawn from the Senate.

Several delicate questions involved in the treaties have been straightened out. The unratified Irish are sure to be exempted from the draft just as they have been under English law. The problem of dual nationality, where persons have taken out "first papers," has also been clarified under the new language of the treaties.

The Senate hardly opened this afternoon when there came the daily explosion of Senator Wadsworth of New York carried his attack on "misleading statements from the committee on public information" to the floor of the Senate. He exhibited captions published in yesterday's official bulletin concerning airplane pictures.

TEN MEXICAN RAIDERS AND ONE SOLDIER KILLED

MARFA, Texas, March 29.—Ten Mexican raiders and one American cavalryman, were killed yesterday in a running fight between United States cavalry and Mexican bandits near Pecos, Mexico, southeast of Valentine, Texas, according to official advices received here today. The fight followed a pursuit after the Mexicans who raided the Neville ranch, killing Glenn Neville.

4 ARMEN KILLED

PARIS, March 29.—Phelps Collins of Detroit, a member of the Lafayette Flying Corps, was killed in an air fight on the French front on March 13, it was announced today.

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 29.—Two more aviation cadets were killed at Texas fields today.

J. H. Scott Rowan, whose home was in Scotland, was killed in a crash at Camp Benbrook.

E. J. Dryer was killed in a fall at Camp Everman.

Both were Royal Flying Corps men.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Death of Lieutenant Marcus A. Jordan, of Phoenix, Ariz., two days after an airplane accident in Italy, in which he was wounded, was reported today in a cablegram from Foglia to his brother, Eldridge E. Jordan, a banker here. Jordan first joined the Canadian Flying Corps and later the American army, and was assigned to the flying forces in Italy.

RETIREMENT, DEFINITELY PLANNED, IS NOW AT END

U. S. Army Strategists Predict Strong Counter Offensive by the American-Anglo-French Units and Rolling Up of Line

CAPITAL EXPECTANT ARE VERY CONFIDENT

Gen. Pershing States Enemy Has Drained Reserves and Now Drawing Divisions From East Front in Desperation

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE
WASHINGTON, March 29.—Major-General J. Franklin Bell, commander of the American-Anglo-French units of the American-Anglo-French army, just back from France, told the Senate military affairs committee today the British withdrawal in the face of the German drive was prearranged.

"You may have heard that the withdrawal of the British was prearranged," said General Bell. "That is true. I know in a general way something about their plans, which I learned confidentially while I was abroad."

The general stated there was no objection to the publication of his statement because the plans had already been carried out.

"You may have seen that General Ludendorff said it took two months to prepare for the drive," said General Bell. "It took longer. There seems to be an impression that the British were ignorant of what was going on. That is not true. I personally know that the British made the best preparation possible."

General Bell described his observation in much detail. He told the committee that General Pershing has established the formation of many officers in the scientific method of warfare worked out by the British and French.

"The utilization of scientific methods work out in the past ten years that warfare is never won by ideal perfect conditions. They were unduly pessimistic."

WASHINGTON OPTIMISTIC OVER NEWS FROM FRONT.
All the news before the authorities early today, however, cheered them. They foresaw that British and French legions, with some of the American victory reserve, would stand off the Germans, hammering at the gates of western civilization.

News from General Pershing indicated that the enemy has drawn his reserve to the utmost and has now drawn upon the east front for further reinforcements.

He is staking his all on the west line, but the British, French and American strategic reserve apparently is now getting rapidly into the struggle. The German spike driven out at Montdidier is menaced. The gallant French pounding at the flank apparently is developing a strong counter-offensive, which will menace the Germans considerably. Meantime the British defense is solidifying. The German has been slowed down and his vitality is being sapped by death and injury.

The extent to which American troops have participated and will participate is still a matter of secrecy. They are known to have had some part and it is assumed by high officers that they will have a share in smashing the foe.

The German drive about Arras is regarded as an effort to strangle out his line, so that it would not be menaced by a British counter-attack there. But though yesterday the tide of battle veered considerably on the British section, the struggle there, as a whole, was favorably viewed by American military men.

They now incline to the belief that Hindenburg designed to crash down upon the channel ports, but they believe that this move—or a drive for Paris—has been and will continue to be thwarted.

Official War Statements

BRITISH

Further strong attacks were made by the enemy yesterday afternoon and evening at several points along the battle front. North of the Somme our troops have maintained their positions and have gained ground in places by successful counter-attacks. A number of prisoners and machine guns were captured by us in this fighting.

The enemy again suffered exceedingly heavy casualties. His frequent attacks, which were pressed with great determination throughout the day, gained only our utmost lines, after several hours of severe hand-to-hand fighting. His reserves were then sent forward against our battle positions and were everywhere thrown back with great loss. Our machine gun, artillery and rifle fire did great execution upon his ranks.

South of the Somme also heavy and continuous fighting took place until late in the evening. Our troops, after maintaining their line all day in the face of repeated assaults by superior enemy forces, have withdrawn a short distance from their advanced positions.

FRENCH

The battle was continued violently yesterday evening and part of the night in the region of Montdidier. Notwithstanding repeated counter-attacks the enemy was not able to move the French from the villages which they captured yesterday. The French troops, following up their successes, took possession of Montcheil after violent fighting.

In front of Plessier-De-Roye there have been violent fighting. All the German attacks against this village broke before the resistance of the French troops.

Statements obtained from prisoners confirm reports that the losses suffered by the Germans without counting their successes are extremely heavy. The number of corpses found in the vicinity of Montdidier and near Plessier-De-Roye also confirms this statement.

To the north of Montdidier Franco-British troops continue victoriously to hold the Germans on the line along the Aves river and in front of Neuville-Sire-Bernard, Mezieres, Marcelcave and Hamel.

Certain columns of German infantry and convoys are reported on the road between Layon and La Fere were brought under the fire of our long-range artillery and dispersed. There has been notable artillery action along the remainder of the front.

LUDENDORFF IS LOSING GAMBLE ON OFFENSIVE

By ED L. KEEN,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, March 29.—There is no reason yet to believe that Quartermaster General Ludendorff has increased his prospects of winning the great political gamble which is the real character of the German super-offensive.

Every effort thus far made to draw in the allies' reserves has failed. Ludendorff's German line has been compelled to take an increasingly precarious shape. Simultaneously the German command has been forced to drain its own reserves past the point of highest effectiveness.

The German line is approaching when the allies' reserves, still intact, will be able to strike where they please.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, March 29.—The fighting continues today despite a sudden change in the weather that has sent a gale and rain sweeping across the battlefield.

The Germans, with ox-like perseverance, are butting away against the British lines in the region of Arras. The enemy has progressed some, occupying the front line trenches at Orange Hill and Neuville Vitasse.

The cold, stinging rain made night fighting difficult. The moon, which, since the commencement of the offensive, turned night into day, was obscured, rendering the night as black as the pit.

As a result there was a comparative lull in the Arras valley and astride the Somme, following a hard day, although under brilliant flares suspended from parachutes outposts and patrols clashed in constant maneuver for an advantageous get-away at dawn.

Major Von Below gained ground in the north, the British held Von Hoffacker to petty advances in the region of Albert.

Four heavy attacks were repulsed late in the afternoon north of the Seine.

Von Below must not be confused with Fritz Von Below, who lost Vimy ridge and his job simultaneously. Otto commanded the Eighth army. Later during the allied drive in Macedonia he commanded the Bulgarian Germans, and there was the order pour le mérite for personally leading the Ninth Jager battalion in a "forlorn hope," saving a dangerous situation.

POILUS GAIN GROUND BY WONDERFUL COUNTERS

Strong German Reserves Are Thrown Into the Battle of Picardy, But Everywhere Are Hurlled Back by Allies

GERMANS NOW ADMIT LOSSES ARE TERRIFIC

Violent Fighting Rages South of Somme; Hun Columns Caught Under Guns of Allies and Mowed Down in Squads

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

LONDON, March 29.—By a series of powerful counter-thrusts, delivered by the British north of the Somme river, ground was gained from the Germans and a number of German prisoners and machine guns were captured, the war office reported today.

There is a continuation of the terrific fighting over the greater part of the battlefield.

Strong German reserves were thrown into the battle, but were everywhere thrown back by the determined resistance of the British.

The dense German columns were caught under the rifle, machine gun and cannon fire of the British, and Field Marshal Haig reported that they again sustained tremendous losses.

South of the Somme river, violent fighting raged until late Thursday evening.

COUNTER BLOWS GROW IN VIGOR

The war office indicated that the British counter blows were growing in vigor and that the pressure of the German drive has greatly weakened. Further strong attacks were delivered by the enemy at several points north of the Somme river in the course of Thursday afternoon and last evening, the war office stated.

Not only did the British hold all their ground, but gained territory from the enemy at some places by successful counter-attacks.

A number of prisoners and machine guns were captured in this battle in which the enemy suffered exceedingly heavy casualties.

As the fighting zone of the mighty battle of Picardy lengthened during the past 24 hours, the German drive again slackened along the line.

Not alone did the allies' front hold under the sledgehammer blows of the German drive, but the Allies made a strategic withdrawal at some points from their advanced positions, the official report added.

Again the Germans suffered extremely heavy losses, their attacking columns being mowed down in heaps by the galling fire of the Anglo-French machine guns and cannon.

TELLS OF FIERCE FIGHT AT ARRAS

While Field Marshal Haig, in his reports to the war office, dwelt upon the violence of the fighting east of Arras, stating that the Germans had succeeded in breaking into some unimportant outposts, no mention was made of the engagement.

A statement given out by the German war office on Thursday night.

"There were engagements on the Somme and Andre rivers. Between the Somme and the Aves rivers, in the course of an attack, strongly defended villages were taken."

Field Marshal Haig reported that the British now hold 55 miles of the great battlefield and that heavy fighting has taken place all along this line.

The attacks made by the Germans from the Arras sector to the south of the Somme.

General Foch Now Is in Supreme Command Over Allied Hosts in France

Moncel Falls Under Determined Assault of Poilus, While British Grip in the Neighborhood of Somme Is Yet Firm
BIG GUN FIRING ANEW ON PARIS

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, March 29.—The long range bombardment of Paris was resumed shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

PARIS, March 29.—Violent fighting continued last evening and last night in the region of Montdidier, the War Office announced today. In spite of German counter attacks the French held the villages which they took yesterday in this region.

Moncel was taken by French troops.

North of Montdidier, French and British troops held up the German thrust. The German losses have been extremely heavy.

General Pershing called on General Foch at headquarters yesterday, according to L'Information, and placed at his disposal the whole resources of the American army for employment in the battle now in progress. L'Information quotes General Pershing as saying:

"I come to say to you that the American people would hold it a great honor for our troops to be engaged in the present battle. I ask it of you, in my name and in that of the American people. There is at this moment no other question than that of fighting. Infantry, artillery, aviation—all that we have are yours to dispose of them as you will. Others are coming which are as numerous as will be necessary. I have come to say to you that the American people would be pleased to have their troops engaged in the present battle."

General Foch placed General Pershing's offer before the council at the front line. The council includes Premier Clemenceau, Commander-in-Chief Petain and Louis Loucheur, minister of munitions.

There have been several reports recently that General Foch, one of the most brilliant strategists of the day, who was largely responsible for the French victory in the Battle of the Marne, would be placed in supreme command on the western front. The Daily Chronicle of London yesterday said an announcement bearing on the coordination of British and French military exertions might be expected almost immediately and that an influential role might be assigned to General Foch.

Violent fighting continued last evening and last night in the region of Montdidier, the war office announced today. In spite of German counter attacks the French held the villages which they took yesterday in this region.

Wilson Wires to High Commander

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The first official reference to General Foch as being in supreme command of the allied forces on the western front is contained in a cablegram President Wilson sent the general today, congratulating him on his "new authority." The President's message said:

"May I not convey to you my sincere congratulations on your new authority? Such unity of command is a most hopeful augury of ultimate success. We are following with profound interest the bold and brilliant action of your forces."

AMSTERDAM, March 29.—The German supreme command is about to deliver a new and mighty blow on another part of the front which will "tear a new hole in the already pierced enemy ring," the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin declares.

LONDON, March 29.—On the Somme the British have maintained their positions and gained ground in places by successful counter attacks, the War Office announces.

After holding their line all day in the face of repeated assaults by numerically superior enemy forces, the British retired a short distance from their advanced positions at some points. The Germans again suffered exceedingly heavy losses. The British took prisoners.

British Gain Ground Along Somme

LONDON, March 29.—On the Somme the British have maintained their positions and gained ground in places by successful counter attacks, the war office announces.

After holding their line all day in the face of repeated assaults by numerically superior enemy forces, the British retired a short distance from their advanced positions at some points. The Germans again suffered exceedingly heavy losses. The British took prisoners.

All told while the intense fighting of yesterday and last night, along the extended battle front gave the Germans some further gains south of the Somme and a slight advance east and southeast of Arras, along the greater part of the line, the assaulting enemy troops were hurled back with heavy losses.

Kerwin, commissioner of conciliation, announced that Congressman Gill and Luther Steward, inspector of immigration at Kansas City, who are acting as Federal mediators, report they are making progress and expect a settlement within a few hours.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Absolute abolition of wheat and wheat products from the menus of all first-class hotels in the United States was asked of 700 hotel men here today by Food Administrator Hoover.

The response was an outburst of cheering. Rising to their feet the hotel men raised their right hands and pledged themselves to effect a 100 per cent saving in wheat to be sent to the allies.

BATTLE TURNING IN FAVOR OF ALLIES

FRENCH SURE AMIENS CAN'T BE CAPTURED

PARIS, March 29.—The great battle is now raging over a front of more than seventy miles. This extension of the line has increased the number of German reserves engaged. Although this has not decisive success has been obtained anywhere, there is increased confidence here.

The impression in semi-official circles is that the allies have not only held off the Germans, but now are no longer compelled to permit the enemy by his maneuvers to shape the course which the battle shall take.

The general feeling is that for Germany the battle is virtually lost, and that for the allies the battle is about to begin. The operations thus far are accepted as confirming the theory that Paris was not the main objective of the German offensive, but that the plan of the enemy was to break the connection between the French and British armies, in which he has failed. The main attack was westward toward the sea. The Germans seek Amiens because this town is an important railroad center of communication with England. The loss of Amiens would be inconvenient but not vital.

L'Huere says: "The situation is improving for us, and the enemy is retreating."

Boches Try to Envelop Amiens British Resistance Is Heroic

BRITISH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, March 29.—The Germans were not to penetrate Marcelcave, twelve miles east of Amiens, in the region south of the Somme, only by means of heavy massed attacks late yesterday which gradually forced the British back. It was in this district, south of the Somme, that the invaders continued to make their greatest efforts. The British here are battling stubbornly and brilliantly against an advance, which, it must be admitted, has been steady.

Meanwhile, another French force struck the German line south of Noyon a hard blow and pushed it back along a front of six miles for a distance of more than one mile.

The conflict in this region has been most sanguinary and at latest reports it was continuing along a line represented roughly by Hamel, Warfuss, Abancourt and Marcelcave. This point seemed to mark the extreme advance against the British.

The German attack in this region was made from Corry, on the Somme, supported by artillery from across the river.

Yesterday's assaults in extreme northern and southern parts of the battlefield were in continuance of the failure.

Towards Amiens, which is the real objective of the Germans, their attacks are meeting with a stubborn defense. They must have Amiens to cut off the British. They must reach the sea to attempt an enveloping movement. Nothing will be spared to defend Amiens to the last.

RUSS WORKMEN AT CHARKOFF TO GIVE BATTLE

By JOSEPH SHAPLIN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

PETROGRAD, March 29.—German Foreign Minister, in reply to a protest, declared Germany was justified in sending armed forces into Finland, on the ground of American Ambassador Francis' statement regarding America's readiness to assist in repudiating the status quo in violation of the Brest-Litovsk peace treaty.

Members of the Russian soviets replied that Francis merely repeated President Wilson's message to which ratification of the treaty furnished a rejoinder.

Anti-Germanism throughout Russia is more intense than at any time since the beginning of the war.

Kuehlmann, replying to a protest against German occupation of Odessa, declared Odessa is in Ukrainian territory.

After the Russians recaptured Odessa, 10,000 workmen in Charkoff (350 miles northeast of Odessa, and 250 miles east of Kiev) resolved to disregard the soviet's order to evacuate and decided to defend the city to the last. They also began moving big stores of goods.

Reinforcements are being rushed from Smolensk (250 miles west of Moscow) to Orsha (75 miles west of Smolensk). They also are being sent from Suma to Orsha to check the Ukrainian-German advance against Charkoff.

In addition to the advance on Charkoff, the enemy is seeking to cut off the soviet forces from Pottava (75 miles west and south of Charkoff).

Red Guards tonight hurried back the enemy forces attempting to reach Suma.

After a battle near Nizhnie-Provsk sixty versts (39.6 miles) from Ekaterinoslav (75 miles south of Pottava), the soviet forces retreated. Former workmen are organizing for the defense of Ekaterinoslav.

The Germans have modified their demands for Ukrainian supplies. M. Grushevsky has urged the members of the rada who resigned to return to that body, admitting that while the peace treaty favors Germany, resistance will result in wiping out Ukrainian independence.

Bavarians Not Shifted From U. S. Sector Americans Bring in Four Prisoners in Raid

By HENRY G. WALES, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 29 (AP)—The capture of four Bavarian soldiers by Americans on the Toul front shows that the enemy has not shifted the forces out of the American sector.

That part of the German line is still held by a Bavarian division, although Von Hindenburg drew troops from many other sectors of the western front for his offensive, as well as from the Russo-Rumanian and Italian fronts. Evidently he did not move any of the forces facing the Americans.

A visit to the American military cemetery, not far behind the fighting line, reveals some interesting things. It is well within range of the field guns. There were twenty-five graves.

The name and other information concerning the soldier is scratched on a bit of brass from a shell case and nailed upon the cross. Designs carved out in empty cartridges decorate the little parks.

Most of the graves have empty bottles stuck in the ground neck downward, containing the papers carried by the men interred.

ONE KILLED, ONE HURT BY TRAINS

An unidentified man aged 73 years and dressed as a laborer, died at the receiving hospital at 1:35 this morning as the result of being struck by a westbound train at the foot of Twenty-third street. He sustained a fractured skull. The body was taken to the morgue.

Found unconscious between the Southern Pacific tracks at the foot of Thirtieth avenue in East Oakland, where he had been thrown when hit by a train, Yuatt Kofe, a colored man aged 32, lying between life and death at the receiving hospital. Dr. Lee Smith reported that he has less than an even chance for recovery.

It is not yet known whether the man is already destroyed. As soon as the victim is able to endure the shock the leg will be amputated. Kofe is a dishwasher and lives at 509 East Twelfth street. He has been unable to explain how the accident occurred.

RUSS SHIP IS SUNK

SUIT IS STARTED

Suit is brought in the Alameda county court by Mrs. Arner B. Gazett to recover title to residence property at Eighth avenue and East Twenty-third street from Mrs. Mary J. Epperly. It is alleged that the defendant took advantage of the plaintiff's husband, Jacob B. Gazett, who is suffering mentally from the effect of an accident in 1898.

The property in question, consisting of lots valued at $4,500, was traded for forty-six shares in the Madera Electric Water Company, declared to be worthless, and $1,700 cash. Gazett was declared incompetent by a decree of the court April, 1914, subsequent to the date of the transfer.

In connection with the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company on April 9, hurried calls for proxies have been sent out by the management, and it is said there may be "something doing" out of the ordinary. ## CIVILIANS LEAVE

PARIS, March 29.—The entire civil population in the region of the German advance has been taken out, Edward Eyre Hunt of the American Red Cross reports to Red Cross headquarters here. Quarters of the Smith College unit and Red Cross workers from the Philadelphia unit labored for a week under shell fire, Hunt says. When the evacuation began the Red Cross, co-operating with the French and British authorities, established a chain of relief stations for refugees.

SHIP, COFFEE, SLACKERS AND BOGIE SEIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—The J. E. Davenport steamer Fairhaven was boarded by a squad of marines and department of justice operatives as it came into port early this afternoon and three men arrested as slackers, 24 sacks of coffee seized and Alfred H. Strim, a German, traveling under a Swiss passport, taken into custody and charged with a violation of the "trading with the enemy act."

According to federal officials, the German agents in Trinidad, Brazil, and Mexico, where it had been raised by German planters, and was consigned to William Hall, 65 South Second street, San Jose. Strim was the freight agent in charge of the coffee and after his arrest admitted that he was a German and that he had been traveling about the world as a Swiss through the use of a passport issued by that country.

The Fairhaven, which is commanded by Captain A. L. Lauer, left San Francisco January 15, and one of her officers was arrested and fined at San Pedro when the vessel put into that port, after contraband articles were found in his possession.

Under the trading with the enemy act this contraband coffee becomes the property of the government and Hall is subject to arrest and prosecution if he is charged for the contraband with the knowledge that it had been raised by enemy aliens. Owner J. E. Davenport is not involved.

POILUS GAIN BY COUNTER ATTACKS

the Somme were less violent than that on the Scarpe, but were pressed home with great determination.

The village of Dernacourt has been the scene of a bloody struggle and has changed hands at least twice.

Dernacourt is nothing but a mass of wrecked houses, where it has been heavily battered by the British and German artillery. However, the British and Germans fought at hand-to-hand grips under these piles of debris and amidst their dead as though the possession of Dernacourt offered a most important step toward victory.

The Germans gained possession of the place, but the British quickly organized a counter-attack and drove them out.

Dernacourt was only one of a series of blasted villages on the line from Albert to the Arras-Cambrai road, for which both sides contend with grim desperation.

In the Chepiques sector (on the Somme river), the German front is now about fifteen miles from Amiens, the allied base.

South of the Somme there was a bitter struggle for a series of fortified villages, some of which changed hands several times.

The French are putting up a heroic struggle against the Germans and the Poilus are fighting like demons. German soldiers of the army of the Crown Prince were driven from several villages west of Montdidier at the point of the bayonet. The new French positions were quickly organized and the line held solidly against all German efforts at recapture. This information indicated that the Teutons have been thrown back into Montdidier.

GERMANS ADMIT

LOSSES ARE HEAVY

The Anglo-French reports of severe German losses are now borne out by the German war office itself, which stated that "while the casualties were kept within 'normal limits,' they were heavier at vital points."

The ninth day of the German drive found the world's attention directed toward vital points on the battlefield. They are:

The Arras sector, where apparently fresh battles have developed.

The Albert-Somme section, where the British compelled the Germans to halt.

The Montdidier sector, where the French began counter-attacking in great force against the southern flank of the German salient.

American soldiers taking part in the fighting have acquitted themselves valiantly, earning the praise of French officers.

GIRL'S LETTERS TELLS WHY SHE SLEW GRODEM

Mrs. Margaret McGown, wife of the defendant in the McGown murder trial in Judge Quinn's department, took the stand just before the noon adjournment today to defend the man who killed in defense of the honor of his daughter.

Throughout the trial the wife has conversed frequently with her attorney and the impression had been created that she did not share the sorrow that bowed her husband's head. But as soon as the questioning began it was learned that she is excessively emotional. The tears came instantly to her eyes and her voice choked so that for long periods she could not continue. Her testimony, before adjournment till 3 o'clock this afternoon, was merely concerning the defendant's physical condition.

Letters written by Margaret McGown, the 16-year-old daughter, to her mother after she had run away from home to escape her alleged persecutor, Rasmus J. Grodem, whom the father killed, were introduced. They tell the story of the tragedy in their few, painful words.

GIRL'S NOTES READ
The first note was written after she left the house and apparently mailed from the station in Fruitvale. It is as follows:
"Dearest Mother, I guess you know I have left on the 7:30 train for Reno. I am O. K. in every way and will always find out in you are well. Don't worry, I am because I will never be happy unless I am by myself. When I am 18 I will come home and beg your forgiveness for all the suffering I am causing you. But I always love you, dear mother. I will always let you know where I am. I have my C. S. book with me always."
But instead of going to Reno the fleeing child went to San Jose. Instead of being happy alone she found her misery pursuing her and wrote a scrawling note to one of the friends of the family, Joseph Terabochio, as follows:
"Joe bring the machine and come to San Jose at once. Rasmus, that devil, has runned me. I am going to kill myself. He tried to kill me with his threats that if I told he would not only kill me but my family. I'll never marry him. For God's sake, come quickly or I'll die. My poor mother and father will understand later."
"MARGARET"

JAPANESE TARS GUESTS OF OAKLAND

Students with a from the three Japanese naval training ships now in the bay were guests of honor today in Oakland and Berkeley. Under the auspices of the local Japanese Association they were taken through the University of California, inspected the Best Tractor Works and were shown Oakland and Berkeley and their environs on an automobile tour directed by the Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Davis welcomed them at the City Hall.

Tonight the students and their officers will be the guests at a banquet at the Hotel Oakland.

WILL GIVE PLAY

A Passion play entitled "The Terrible Week," will be presented by Ethelvinda McMillen, for the "scholar party of Oakland at Lincoln Hall, 411 Thirteenth Street, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, April 1st.

Victor K. Lunt will assist Miss McMillen with recitation and song.

"The Terrible Week" shows the viciousness of autocracy and the blind obedience to the military and the terrible crimes that are committed against those who want to establish democracy and the higher ideals in society. The entertainment is free.

Joe, the witness said, rushed to answer the appeal and found her waiting at the City station in San Jose. She wrote a note to her mother and waited in San Jose while Joe returned home with it. The letter was as follows:
"Dearest Mother, I am in San Jose and am going to write to you. I wrote from Fruitvale that I was going to Reno. But, Mother, don't worry. I am not so that brat would not find me and kill me and kill all of us as he threatened to do."
"Mother he always took me by force and the warning was. Remember that you have a nice family. See now you will have to marry me he said. But I refused. I'll tell you all when I see you."
"Joe, that I always hated has been an angel to me. That terrible man wanted me to write him a love letter before I killed myself."
"Dearest, I say good-bye with all my trust in God. I read the C. S. book all the time."
Good bye, dearest

ATTORNEYS SQUABBLE
Words battles between District Attorney Hynes and Attorney A. A. Fontaine became more frequent as the trial proceeded. Hynes today insisted that the witness attorney's court to see me introduced after Judge Quinn had ruled against its admissibility was disrespectful to the Court.

Fontaine replied that if Hynes had frequently enough when disrespected, where upon the language became more belligerent and Fontaine replied to one of Hynes' remarks by declaring that on this the greatest sin of the Christian year the dirtiest attorney spoke sacrilege.

"Don't say anything about religion," retorted Hynes. "Your religion is all on your face."

OFFICER WOUNDED

SHERWOOD, Ore., March 29.—R. W. Rasmussen of this place received from Washington, D. C., notification that his brother, Major Alexander Rasmussen, had been wounded in action in France.

Major Rasmussen has just been transferred to the American forces at request of General Pershing from the Princess Pat regiment of the Canadian army. He was with the Princess Pats in the battle of Ypres and earned the title of "the flying major" later because of his success in leading French raids. Before entering the Canadian army he had served in the Fourth United States cavalry and was a Spanish war veteran.

BIRTHS IN ENGLAND

LONDON, March 29.—Notwithstanding the war's carnage, the number of births in 1916 exceeded by 277,303 the number of deaths, according to the registrar-general's report, just made public. The reduction in the number of births amounted to only 12 per cent.

"Brain and Steel to Win": T. R. Colonel Sounds Maine Keynote

PORTLAND, Maine, March 29.—There is but one way to get a righteous and lasting peace and that is to beat Germany to her knees, Colonel Roosevelt declared here today in a "keynote address" which he delivered before the Maine Republican State convention. Colonel Roosevelt lauded as "wholehearted" support which he declared the Republican members of Congress had given to the administration in Washington. He declared "mismanagement at Washington" and urged a policy of "permanent preparedness" after the war.

"War is won by brains and steel, not by kid gloves and fine phrases," said the former President in his arraignment of "some of the most important divisions of the government" which he said were "aiming chemically pure of efficient organization."

In discussing post bellum readjustments which he declared already have been shown essential to the well-being of the nation, he said:

CANNOT TOLERATE FLINT-LOCK METHODS.

"We cannot afford to tolerate flint-lock methods of warfare in time of war or flint-lock methods of government for meeting the problems of industry in time of peace. We need new weapons, but we need the old spirit back of the new weapons. The simple governmental processes which sufficed in the days of Washington and even in the days of Lincoln are as utterly inadequate today in peace as the flint-lock of Bunker Hill and the smooth-bore muskets of Bull Run would be in war."

"Republicans in Congress since the entry of the United States into the war have sought to serve their party only by making it serve America," Colonel Roosevelt said in his introductory remarks.

"There have been very grave faults and shortcomings and delays in governmental work. But they were not due to the action of Congress, and the action of the Republicans in Congress was consistently designed to correct them."

"We are pledged to the bill as a nation to put this war through without flinching until we win the peace or overwhelming victory. We are pledged to secure for each well-behaved nation the right to control its own destinies and to live undomesticated and unharmed by others so long as it does not harm others."

"This is the people's war. It is not

WELCOME TO LIBERTY LOAN TO BE HEARTY

Church bells, fire sirens, steam whistles, telephones, door bells and every available noise-making device in Oakland will be turned on at full blast on the morning of April 6.

The concentrated noise will continue for a period of ten minutes, beginning at 7 o'clock, new war time. It will announce the opening of the nation-wide "drive" for the sale of Liberty bonds destined to play a big part.

All city departments, every manufacturing plant, all the steam laundries and every church in Oakland has been asked to co-operate with the Oakland Liberty Loan Committee in starting the third loan drive with a bang and outburst that will go down in history.

YORK ARRANGES DETAILS.

The details have been arranged by B. L. York, chairman of the noise division of the local Liberty Loan Committee. York's appeals for co-operation in this detail of the initial Liberty bond celebration were made through letters to the various departments, manufacturing plants and churches. Scores of them have already replied assuring York of a wholehearted and noisy co-operation.

During the ten-minute period while the noise is at its height every fire apparatus in the city will be driven around the blocks of the neighborhoods in which they are located. Even Chief Whitehead of the fire department will take an early morning sprint about the downtown section of the city in his desperate race.

And there will be a good, husky fireman at the operating end of the siren on the Chief's motor.

All street corner fire alarms will be rung in unison and the smaller sirens stationed about the city will contribute to the racket.

MORTARS TO ROAR.

Nine mortars will be fired at rapid intervals in as many different public parks of the city. An especially big mortar will be discharged in front of the Civic Auditorium.

Judge Jesse J. Dunn, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Oakland Liberty Loan Committee, has called a meeting of all Oakland citizens for tomorrow noon at the Young Women's Christian Association. Arrangements have been made so that those who attend may eat lunch at the same time. The time set for the meeting is 12:15 o'clock.

The speakers' bureau of the local Liberty Loan Committee needs the active and ready service of at least fifty members of the bar during the coming Liberty Loan drive. It is hoped that through Saturday's meeting at least that number will volunteer for assignments to address various organizations and gatherings in Oakland during the sales campaign of Liberty bonds.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH 'DANDERINE'

Spend a Few Cents; Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Try This! Hair Gets Beautiful, Wavy and Thick in Few Moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that shines with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots become loose and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Danderine's Dandruff Remover at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

I sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Danderine's Danderine. If you don't—why not now?—Advertisement.

The Right Laxative For The Little Ones---

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl mopes and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play, the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in as simple and natural a way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physics are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without griping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be its happy self again.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Perfect Laxative

NO INCREASE

In spite of enormous increased laboratory costs due to the War the manufacturers of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are sacrificing their profits and absorbing the war taxes so that this family laxative may remain at the pre-war price of 50c and $1 a large bottle. So sold by druggists for 25 years.

FREE SAMPLES

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in America. If you have never used it, send for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 468 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. If you have babies in the family send for a copy of "The Care of the Baby."

Quickly Ended by a Pleasant, Germ-Killing Antiseptic. The Little Hyomel Inhaler is made of hard rubber and can easily be carried in pocket or purse. It will last a lifetime. Into this inhaler you pour a few drops of magical Hyomel.

This is absorbed by the antiseptic gauze within and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ-infested membrane where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarrhal germs. Hyomel is made of Australian eucalyptol combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to banish catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds or money back. It cleans out a stuffed-up head in two minutes.

Sold by The Owl Drug Co. and druggists everywhere.

Complete relief including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomel costs but little, while extra bottles, if afterward needed, may be obtained of any druggist—Advertisement.

MUES ARRAIGNED KRULL DECIDES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—C. D. Mues, government inspector at the Oakland and San Francisco plants of the Edwin A. Forrest Forge Company, who was indicted with Prosper J. Forrest, general manager of the Forrest Company on two charges of conspiracy to defraud the government, was arrested with young Forrest on a bench warrant this morning and arraigned before United States Commissioner Francis Krull and gave bonds of $5,000 each for arraignment before District Judge M. T. Dooley next Monday.

The government alleges that the Forrest Company furnished defective castings for use on vessels in the emergency fleet corporation, and that these castings were passed by Mues as inspector and much of the forgings are now installed in Permanent possession of the papers and documents seized by Federal agents from the home of Mrs. Ralph Mork of Berkeley, daughter of Dr. John Endicott Gardner, former immigrant inspector, has been vested in the immigration department. The order directing this disposition of the papers was made yesterday by United States Commissioner Francis Krull.

In the order made by Krull, Dr. Gardner is permitted to retain all papers and documents of a personal nature. Dr. Gardner refused to say which papers were personal and he will take an appeal to Judge Dooley for the return of all the documents which he claims are not government papers.

Vessels now in course of construction both in the bay district and in the north.

50-50 RECIPES ARE GIVEN TO MILLS

Easter vacation at Mills College began at noon today and continues till Tuesday, April 2, at noon. As an Easter gift to each girl the home economics department of the college gave a well-chosen assortment of 50-50 recipes with carefully worded suggestions for the changing of any recipe to accord with food regulations. These recipes were distributed at the regular assembly hour at the third Hoover lecture being given on the campus by Miss Mary Vail, head of the home economics department. The recipes are to be taken to the homes of the girls as they scatter through the western states for the Easter vacation.

Wheat substitution is constructive, real patriotism, said Miss Vail this morning. The government is now asking that one-half, instead of one-fourth, the amount of wheat be substituted. Among the substitutes Miss Vail dealt with barley, rice, potatoes, soy beans and corn.

GOOD SUBSTITUTES.

Barley and rice are both available in California, and corn is most abundant, both as flour and meal. The soy bean comes largely from China and is ground into flour in San Francisco and Seattle. The bean contains 34 per cent protein and 16 per cent fat. Its food value is high, though containing 24 per cent starch. In the amount of protein it more nearly approaches wheat than any other substitute.

Rice and potatoes are both cheap and valuable as food. Sweet potatoes are especially valuable as food because of the amount of sugar contained. The supply of protein is small so should be used with other things. That the excess stock of potatoes is wasted in paring is the claim of Miss Vail.

OLD GLORY RAISED.

A new patriotic note has been struck at Mills College with the formal raising of the flag by the student body preceding the classes of the day. Just as the chimes ring out the hour of 8 to the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by 300 patriotic young women, Old Glory is raised on the oval of the campus.

The flag raising ceremony to be held each morning on the campus just before the first class begins is in charge of a committee of students. This committee is representative of each class and is changed weekly. Those having in charge the initial ceremony held this morning on the campus are Miss Doris Alexander, president of the student body, Miss Marjorie Dinsmore, Miss Mary-Male and Miss June Giddings.

There is, as a rule, no connection between hustling fruit boxes and life on the bounding main, but Fred Bierwith, of the Hunt-Hatch Company, commission merchant, is the exception. Bierwith, when not busy juggling produce, is one of the crack launch captains of the estuary, and incidentally holds the record for long and hard rowing.

Having penetrated the Carquinez straits in heavy gales in small craft when experienced bay mariners shied at the task.

Now he is studying navigation, planning to qualify for Uncle Sam's merchant marine. In the meantime he is still working at the produce game.

IT TAKES A BOY TO TELL ANOTHER BOY

School Directors Louis Aber and Floyd Gray, who are rivals for the honor of being the youngest member of the Board of Education, never miss an opportunity to gain a point in the controversy. Recently Aber put one over on Gray when he classified him with a bunch of high school boys who were said to belong to a "sub rosa" fraternity.

But the other night Gray won a point through the precocity of a small member of the Gray household. Aber had been invited to a dinner in the Gray home. There were several children present and when the guests were introduced to Gray Jr., he pointed to Director Aber and asked his father:

"Who's that other boy?"

Director Gray says that the controversy is not settled.

"I'll leave it to a kid if he can't tell the difference," he says.

HE COULD ACT IN MOVIES WHILE SPEECHLESS

Comedy effects with coffee are hot stuff.

Charley Chaplin knows how to handle them, but Hugh Mearns,

Oakland actor, does not, and as a result wants a "dumb part" for next week's show.

It was like this: Over at the Hotel Oakland they were rehearsing, and Mearns and Betty Brice conceived a brilliant comedy effect, in which Mearns was to gulp down a cup of coffee in less time than a nodding.

In the next room waiters were preparing coffee for a luncheon. So Betty went out, beguiled Maître d'Hotel Maurice Perrin out of a tray, cups and saucer of coffee, and she and Mearns started the rehearsal.

She poured the coffee, and he seized and gulped it in the approved fashion—or started to, rather.

There was a howl of anguish that woke up "Tony" Smythe's dog and disrupted the rehearsal. Mearns was dancing with pain. Comedy and all else were forgotten.

Now he can't speak. The whole inside of his mouth is paralyzed. "New comedy ideas? Bah!" he writes on the pad of paper he carries with him to avoid painful vocalization.

But when he can talk again words even hotter than that coffee will be ready to describe the experience.

He promises that.

RIGHT TO FISH IS NO GUARANTEE OF LUCK

Superior Judge J. S. Koford feels that the "April fool" joker is at work on him in advance of schedule. Always it has been the judge's habit to celebrate the coming of summer and the dawn of the fisherman's millennium on April 1, and to that end he has been polishing up his fishing outfit with all the jocular anticipation of a schoolboy's contemplation of vacation.

But while looking over his calendar he discovered that on that date of dates he is scheduled to try a case. He is trying to figure whether someone put up a job on him, or whether in addressing the thought necessary to the maintenance of becoming judicial dignity, which to a man of his years is not always easy to do—though it is said that he is to the manner born—he became absent-minded.

Diligently he set to work looking up a precedent to guide him in postponing the matter, if the lawyers should prove obdurate. In Eli Perkins he found it, and joy filled his heart.

It is the case in which the District Court of Northern Michigan adjourned to go and get a black bear which the judge had treed in a beech down in the edge of the clearing.

The judge says it is on "all in every essential" sustained that he has a right to fish on that day of the year. And further, it's according to Hoover.

HELD UP BY WOMEN

That he was held up by two colored women who accosted him at Eighth and Jefferson streets last night and robbed him of $45 in currency and a Southern Pacific pay check for $60, was the report made to the police today by George Gravanich, of 914 Eighth street. Several cases similar to this, involving two negro women, have been reported to the police recently.

What You, Mr. Dealer, Must Appreciate About Coca-Cola's Restricted Output

The reason why you do not get your full supply of Coca-Cola will appeal to your patriotism. To save materials for war use, Coca-Cola's output is restricted by the Government. The Coca-Cola Company is proud to do its full part in conservation, and at the same time is endeavoring to help the Government in preserving industry.

Please recognize that we are making every effort to supply you with the utmost quantity in strict accordance with official regulations. Please appreciate that your difficulties are ours—and ours are multiplied by the number of our friends and dealers throughout the country, whose business it is our object to strengthen and maintain.

It is important for you to realize that every ounce of Coca-Cola we are manufacturing and distributing to you, every glass you sell over your counter, is in effect legalized—allowed and authorized by Mr. Hoover and the Food Administration after full compliance with their purposes. Coca-Cola represents a product that loyal dealers may be proud to offer.

Order from your regular jobber and we will go the limit to meet your demands and at the same time meet the requirements of our Government and yours.

When authorized Coca-Cola is called for, give your customer the genuine. If you are out of Coca-Cola for the minute don't offer an imitation which has not loyally done its part in conservation, but which is trying to take advantage of our restricted output to pass itself off as a substitute.

To stand by loyal business, defend honest products, and protect the public against deception—these are not only duties of patriotism, fair play and conscience, but they are character-principles of good business, and the only principles that pay in the long run.

Oakland Man Tells of War Writes Home From "Over There" Letter Has Touch of Pathos

Lively descriptions of the life of the American soldiers who arrived in France with the first contingents, a frank statement of the belief of the men that they are face to face with a formidable enemy, and that they can best be served by those "back home" if the truth is told words of praise for the beautiful eyes of the French girls and the heroic stoicism of the French in the face of hardship, are told in a letter from H. A. MacBride, formerly traffic manager for Libby-McNeill & Libby in Oakland, and now a sergeant in the American army in France, just received by V. O. Lawrence of the Lawrence Warehouse Company.

A touch of pathos is given the letter in the close MacBride, who is well known among the traffic men of the day region, sends his best wishes to Keith—W. W. Keith, former harbor manager of Oakland, whose death occurred some months ago.

MacBride starts by thanking Lawrence for his letter of "January 9," and wishing that he received more letters from home and also for some Christmas boxes. After some personal matters, Sergeant MacBride begins his story of life in France. He writes: "Of course, the glamour of the thing has rather worn off now, and I cannot do nearly as well as I might have some months ago. Commencing November 3, I had charge of something like 200 Austrian prisoners for over three months. They are part of that bunch taken in the early days of the war, 75,000 being captured in something like five days by the Serbs. Not a bad bunch—many of them belong to provoking French. They were seized by Austria, like Alsace-Lorraine by Germany, and were compelled to fight on the side of Austria. If they refused, the penalty was death. There were many of them who could speak English, having been in America.

ARE PRO-ALLY.

"They have now been prisoners over three and a half years, and their sympathies are with the Allies. They want to see Uncle Sammy come through with flying colors. And from the way they talk it looks as if Austria was at the breaking point. Letters come through from Austria practically unsensured—where $200 a sack. No sugar, tobacco 90 cents for a sack holding about as much as a 5-cent Durham sack.

"We are working very hard, reveille 6 a. m.—taps 10:30. We work from 7:30 till 5, and only every other Sunday off. Am prohibited from saying what kind of work we are engaged upon. At present I am night sergeant of the guard, and about the hardest thing I do is to keep the fire going, so I won't freeze to death. We have had some very cold weather—March was ushered in by a storm—rain, snow, wind, thunder and lightning, and some cold, too.

"The German prisoners are an arrogant lot. But they don't think the war will last another winter. They think peace will be declared. Personally I am inclined to believe with a good many in the States—Gary for one—that we have a formidable enemy, and that we must estimate our ability to fight on to those at home. Give them the facts and let them get behind us.

"CHRISTMAS CHEER. "Christmas brought many packages from Germany to the German prisoners here. There were foodstuffs in nearly every one—cigars and cigarettes, cakes, candies, cheese, canned goods, fish and so forth—and that at a time when it was impossible to get these things in France. That doesn't look like the country was starving to death, does it? False reports of conditions in Germany may be only German camouflage—new word, I don't know whether I spelled it correct or not.

"I know one thing. Prisoners of war in France are certainly not treated like those in German hands. If I am ever taken again I hope I fare no worse than ones I have seen here. And believe me, they are glad to be near the Americans. They shoot our snipes. Of course they are paid by the French Government. But when

French people themselves can't get tobacco, what chance does a prisoner get? They are only worked eight hours a day and don't work Sundays. An enclosing couple of pictures. Do any of them look like a dissatisfied lot?

"The French people are certainly making every sacrifice to go through with this. We are faring a great deal better than many of them do. They are now allowed only 300 grams of bread a day for each person. Coal is out of the question. But they bear everything stoically.

READ THIS, BOY.

"Talk about pretty girls—Oh, Man! They are surely there. They could well sing that song of Anna Held's 'You Can't Buy Love.' Of course when we first hit here we were pretty much of a novelty—first on the job, you know—and they took us to their hearts. We of course established ourselves before the others could get over. So we should worry. And everybody is studying French. I myself am making fairly good progress.

"We are to have our furlough some day soon and are to have seven days at Aix les Bains up in the Alps. Pretty nice, eh? But I wouldn't mind seven days around San Francisco Bay. Just imagine, I have been here six months already—beginning to feel like an old settler.

"It's no fun writing here by candle light—sit right on the stove and get up about every five minutes to warm my back. O well, as we say here: 'It's a great war, but it ain't run right!'

"How's everything at Oakland Terminal Warehouse? Full up, I hope. Oakland now has a wonderful opportunity if they don't let it get away from them.

"Remember me to Keith. Is he still on the job? "And yes—don't believe any of this bunk you hear about drunkenness amongst the boys over here. Bunk! Write soon and give me all the news. My very best to you, V. O. "Sincerely, H. A. MacBride."

BATHE INTERNALLY

OVER 500,000 PEOPLE ARE NOW DOING SO.

For many years physicians have agreed that the vast majority of human ills were caused by accumulated waste in the Lower Intestine; that in our present state of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poison from this waste circulated through the blood pulled us away down below par and was responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

"During this time the 'J. B. L. Cascade' for Internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor. Recently, however, the startling news which has been coming from the great surgeons and specialists have been convincing on the J. B. L. Cascade for the most chronic and serious diseases that caused Americans to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Baths.

"If you try the 'J. B. L. Cascade' you will find it is a most effective and capable—the poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the 'J. B. L. Cascade' gently assists her. Call and see the Old Drug Co., or ask them for 'Why Man, of Today is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient,' a booklet of great interest, which is given free on request.—Adv.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid. Says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble. The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night, when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts: take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

Policeman Edward Hughes, driver of the inspectors' department, is in a precarious condition at his home, 1363 Sixteenth street, where he has been ill from nervous breakdown since Wednesday morning following the death of Inspector Charles McCarthy, a bo-hood friend. He was at McCarthy's bedside when he passed away during a delirium and since that time his condition has been critical.

NOW FASHIONABLE

There was a time when appendicitis was quite a fashionable disease. In some parts of Europe it was known as the "American disease." The first operation for appendicitis was performed at St. Luke's hospital, Denver, Colo., in January, 1885. A young woman residing in Davenport, Ia., had the distinction of being the first person to have the troublesome vermiform appendix removed.

The operation necessarily was in the nature of an experiment, and the patient was so informed, but she pluckily declared her willingness to submit to the knife as a last resort. It was not until about two years later that another operation of this kind was performed. Since then thousands of such operations have been performed in every hospital in the world.

ELECTION FIGHT IN WISCONSIN GROWS WARM

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 29.—With the cry that partisan politics should be kicked out of the Wisconsin senatorial fight, both Irvine L. Lenroot, Republican, and Joseph E. Davies, Democrat, entered the home stretch of the race.

The urgent plea from both camps for all loyalists to get out and bump Victor L. Berger, the Socialist nominee, off the track, both sides are accusing the other of splitting the loyal vote by petty politics, with the danger of either making Berger's election possible or allowing him to roll up such a large vote that it will be a dark spot in Wisconsin's history.

In the meantime both Davies and Lenroot camps are claiming victory for their respective champions. Republican headquarters here claim victory for Lenroot by a majority of 30,000. On the other hand the Davies campaign managers give out a forecast that Wilson's candidate will come through a winner by a lead of 34,000. To offset both these claims the Socialists assert that Berger will win.

Last night Davies arraigned Senator Smoot and other Republicans for launching charges that the administration is playing politics at Washington.

TEACHERS TOLD PLOTS ARE DUE TO IGNORANCE

Directly tracing the growth of German spy plots and seditious propaganda to educational failures along American citizenship lines and declaring that academic neglect of national problems of language, civic responsibility and patriotic growth was one of the failures of the country's instructive systems, Dr. Anne Nicholson, in charge of the educational work at the San Francisco Bay Mills, 5710 today before the Americanization section of the California Teachers' Association at the Oakland Technical high school on "The Work of Classes in the Army."

According to Dr. Nicholson astounding ignorance is manifested among drafted men in the United States army of foreign birth. The great number of those who have recently come to this country, she alleges, cannot speak or write the English language or its American substitute. She declares that she has found most of them avid for just the training that they have not received and that the work which individual factors are doing in army life is raising the standard of intelligence of enlisted men.

"I found men who could not absolutely speak a word of English," she said. "This was particularly true of some sixty Poles, whom we are educating along simple American principles. All are avid to write. They also want to know about America. There are big men, good men, generous men, who have said to me that they did not see this idea of doing something for the immigrant as a concomitant with the work which they are doing for their own children. They say they need the money for the children and they are neglecting the immigrant thereby. This is one of the great mistakes of modern educational systems."

Stamping democracy as the hardest form of government in the world in an honest man, through its insistent demands for eternal vigilance, Dr. William Herbert Carruth, professor of English at Stanford University, speaking before the peace section of the California Teachers' Association at the Oakland Technical high school, urged referendum of war problems to popular vote. He said:

"War has revealed to the people of the world for the first time their own power. This is evidence to the cause of the Labor party in England. The attitude of today is that the life-loser is entitled to have something to say about the cause of his loss of life. The future, predicated a referendum on such topics as the armistice and the world belongs to the people in it."

DONE BY EDUCATION. "This does not mean an equality in shares is the fundamental idea of democracy. Justice in a democracy means an equality of opportunity. Education must be developed along the line of showing equality of shares on any other basis is not good for the individual or for society as a national situation. Education can do anything. The present condition of Germany shows how a naturally gentle and kindly people can be made ruthless and cruel by education."

The situation for the future is one that must be carefully understood. It is one that means we must, in patience, learn that no government can produce perfection. We must learn to accept the most we can and trust the rest to the people and to God."

Making a plea for the broadening of school work to academic standards, and warning against the danger of neglecting the ethical phases of education, Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills college, in an address before the California Teachers' Association, asserted that one of the faults of modern child training was the tendency to make "human clothes" out of them. "Don't subtract from the education of the boys and girls who are being taught to be hodcarriers and hat-makers the things that make life worth while," she said. "I see less danger in the problem of industrial education—because the government has taken hold of that—than I see in forgetting other things. You may teach a man to be a hodcarrier, but if you don't make his mind his kingdom, alas for his life as a hodcarrier."

MORE REQUIRED. "There is the practical necessity for earning bread and butter that we all are sneaking in terms of the Folshewski, and I am becoming a little afraid of the kingdom of Mind and Soul. There is something greater to be required by the community than the rest to make one's daily bread. Education must be technical, mental and spiritual as well."

"Do not unify the school system so that we will turn out human beings through a varied process. We must create great individuals to organize industry, to make research, to go back and work on our farms, and make our roads—not so much to bring the country to the city as to take the city back to God's country. Since reasonableness, adequate appreciation of the importance of the profession of teaching, and contemporary intelligence are the imperative need of the teaching day."

SHOULD BE THINKERS. "Teachers should be thinkers. They must keep their eyes clear and their heads level. It is the sphere of the teacher to spread the knowledge of potential good. Teachers must rise to the job in hand, for it is the responsibility of the country. There are 21,000,000 people in whom they have to inculcate the principles of democracy. We have not been contemporary in a study of conditions. Until the year 1890 America was a nation achieving the first part of its history; conquering the land on which we lived. The schools did not have to face the artificial environments outside of the home. Since that date we have been facing the lumbering of social conditions."

"The need of a federal department of education which would coordinate work of the states that care for these 21,000,000 people is badly needed. This and the war service of teachers who do not belong to the conscripted class, but who should be self-conscripted in spirit, mind and endeavor, will reflect the spirit of the times and develop that patriotism which is the unselfish service to the country in which you live in times of peace as well as war."

GERMAN TAKEN IN L. A. BELIEVED TO BE ENEMY SPY

SAN DIEGO, March 29.—Fritz Hafnerman, a German, was arrested here by the police Saturday night as a suspect in a case of an entire different nature from the raider Alexander Agassiz, but papers found in his possession caused the police to deliver him immediately to the Department of Justice agents.

One paper, it is stated, contained a complete code for control of the searchlights at the powder works. By means of the code any one with a pocket electric torch could cause the searchlights to be pointed in any desired direction, deflected slightly to the right or left, raised or lowered and generally kept busy while plotter remained free to work in the dark.

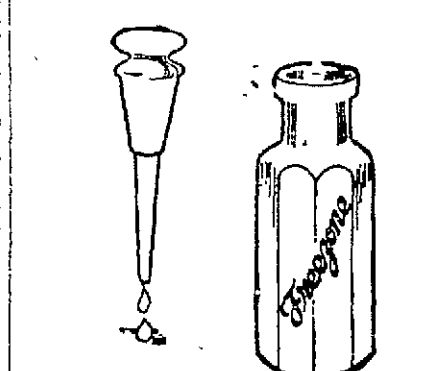

Hafnerman's activities also included the sale of German Red Cross stamps, of which he had approximately $51,000 worth. It is stated.

FREE MARKET OUTLINED BY FARM ADVISER

By HARRY L. SULLY.

Outlines of a plan to establish a municipal open market in Oakland at small cost, and with the largest possible chance of success, were laid before the City club of Berkeley last night, at a meeting held in the Auditorium of the Berkeley High School. The plans were outlined by Marcus A. Lee, farm adviser of Alameda county, and Professor S. H. Dadisman of the College of Agriculture, University of California.

"I have talked with the farmers out San Leandro, San Lorenzo and Hayward way," said Farm Adviser Lee. "They will not come to Berkeley with their produce, no matter what kind of market you provide."

"But they will be glad to go to Oakland," Berkeley will have to depend on the producers from Contra Costa county.

"There is real need on the part of the producers for an open market in Oakland, as well as on the part of the consumers. I am speaking, however, from the point of view of the producers."

The meeting was addressed by Mayor Greene Majors of Alameda, who declared that the east bay cities would have had municipal markets years ago if the consumers had been awake to their own interests, and had been alive to community effort to protect the interests of all the people, and by Frank W. Hooper, Frank V. Cornish presided.

"I would start on curb market," said Farm Adviser Lee. "This is what the farmer is asking for, and what the consumer will be glad to make use of as soon as it is established. It has the advantage of not necessitating a large expenditure of the taxpayers' money."

"Then if you find that it is supplying a real need, that it is well patronized, that the consumers are going there, and that the farmers are driving in the heavy trucks, and that a covered shed, with concrete floor, perhaps a few stalls and a display counter. When this is being used to its full capacity, it will be time to branch out into the larger market."

Fresno followed this course, and in three years has accumulated a market fund of $12,000 from the proceeds of the market itself. This is to be used to erect a covered shed and lay a concrete floor. Already the farmers around Fresno are beginning to reserve the shady spots in the market, and it will again be crowded this year. Production of the smaller farmers has increased greatly since the Fresno market was established.

"The market should be a place where anything that is produced first hand can be sold. There was a woman selling panes and cottage cheese in the Fresno market the day I was there. They were her own products, and she kept the returns. She had come fifteen miles with her husband, who sold vegetables, and she had sold more than $1400 from their sales in the public market in one season."

SUCCESS FUNDAMENTALS. "The fundamentals of success for a public market in Oakland, it seems to me, are these:

"The market must be free in deed as well as in name. There should be no regular license charge for the farmers, but merely a small nominal fee of 10 or 25 cents a day. "Provision should be made to permit the farmer to sell direct from their wagons to the consumers. "The market must be located near the district in which the working classes live, or in such a place that it is easily accessible. "There must be, as there is in Alameda county, a large trucking district within trucking distance of the market. "The market master must be a man of exacting ability, with some knowledge and enthusiasm for his work. In most of the markets I have visited the handling of the market has been lacking in efficiency because the market masters are little more than glorified janitors."

WILL AID SMALL FARMER. "The market will be of the greatest value to the small farmer with from one to ten acres. At present the small farmer is handicapped because he is forced by the conditions of bargain and sale imposed by the middlemen to devote himself exclusively to one crop to raise enough of that crop to attract the attention of the shipper who does not care for small lot purchases. "If a market were established these small farmers could greatly diversify their crops, making possible the use of the land, and a marked increase in the total amount of production and an increase in the actual returns to the small farmer. But he must be assured of a market before he will attempt this increase and diversification of crops. "Many of these small farmers could increase production at least two-fold, with but little increase in the expenditure of energy and funds used in production. The farmers around Fresno and Los Angeles have found that by selling in the municipal free markets they get from 25 to 30 per cent more for their produce, while the consumer gets it for 5 to 10 per cent less, and gets a fresher, better class of goods. "All the farmers and most of the organizations agree that the market shall be confined to the actual producers, and that hucksters and other dealers and middlemen must be kept out. It is most important that only bona-fide producers be allowed in the markets."

DUTY OF COMMUNITY. Speaking of the duty of the community to the less fortunate members, Mayor Greene Majors of Alameda said:

"Society as a whole owes a certain duty to all its members. If a part of the members of the group are down at the ragged edge, society must carry that burden. The tramp, the cripple, the half-efficient, the marginal class—all must be maintained. And since society has this responsibility, and has now a way of getting rid of it, why not perform it in such a way as to permit the members to have the greatest possible opportunities to maintain themselves, to be self-supporting, and to keep their self-respect. "You may ask what this has to do with municipal markets. Markets that are properly maintained reduce the cost of living and make possible for those who are struggling to get enough to eat to help themselves. It is not a question of making a market pay a net profit. If it pays in community service, that is all that can be asked. And right now let me tell you that the best asset any city can have is to be able to say that people can live cheaply and well in it because it has taken upon itself the responsibility of protecting the public in the matter of buying and selling food."

LIVING COST HIGH

Living in the East is 50 per cent higher than in California, according to J. J. Hunt, brother of Ulrich Hunt, local commission man and member of the firm of Hunt, Hatch & Co. Hunt, who is now in Michigan, has sent his brother a comparative series of prices on all grades of produce, showing the wide difference in prices in the Eastern states. Luxuries like asparagus and artichokes sell around $10 a box, apples are extremely high, eggs are bringing in the neighborhood of 70 cents a dozen wholesale, and potatoes, apples, pumpkins and vegetables are selling at one-half as much again wholesale as here. Poultry is selling at prohibitive prices. "Rents are lower in the Middle West than in California," writes Hunt, "but not enough to compensate the difference in food prices."

WILL INCREASE RATES. LONDON, March 28.—Steamship companies in a number of trades are considering the question of an increase in passenger fares, which so far have been very little changed since the beginning of the war. The great advance in the cost of food and all stores, working expenses and especially wages, are cited as justifications for increased fares.

HAVE LIGHT VOTE. LOS ANGELES, March 28.—A light vote is being cast here today for school trustees. The polls opened at 11 and will close at 6. The only candidate to announce himself is C. F. Hamsler, cashier of the First National Bank.

THE BATTLEFIELD.

After seven days' fighting in France the tide of battle is still uncertain. But the anxiety over the position of the Allied forces is much less than was felt when the German offensive started. Hindenburg has delivered the hardest blow it was possible for him to strike anywhere along the line, and it has been withstood. The British and their allies have had to withdraw over a sector of their front, but not to abandon as large an area or a district as important tactically and strategically as the mention of towns in the despatches might indicate.

Of greater satisfaction is the fact that the withdrawal has been orderly, stubborn, with the minimum of loss in men and material, while at the same time being highly destructive to the enemy. The Allied forces are now so disposed, so far as the shape of the battle lines and the terrain is concerned, to deliver a most powerful counter-offensive. The only consideration in the way of complete optimism over the situation from Arras to the Aisne river is lack of information as to the number of troops engaged on each side.

But if the information which the Allies obtained concerning the number of troops the Kaiser had assembled on the west front is reliable and the statements of the strength of the French and British armies have not been exaggerated, it is not too sanguine to hope that the present desperate move of Germany will be turned into utter defeat. Such news as has been received from France indicate that the calculations have not been seriously wrong. The hope is justified, therefore, that the Germans will soon be thrown back to the Cambrai-St. Quentin-La Fere line and probably far beyond.

SPIES AND AIRPLANES.

Senator Overman, spokesman for the President in the Senate and specially in charge of the President's bill for the reform of the army administrative organization, charged in the Senate yesterday that the delay to the airplane program was due to enemy spies. He said German agents infest all the airplane plants and asserted that there are 400,000 spies in the United States.

The total number of spies given by Senator Overman is a stock one; there are that many, more or less, working against the interests of the United States. General measures for their control or extermination have been discussed but no definite program of procedure has been agreed upon, except the internment of enemy aliens of one nationality who have been caught in overt unlawful acts. Something to correct a very dangerous situation must be done; the government will retain complete charge of the methods if it adopts a vigorous course quickly enough.

But as to the airplane program not an hour of faltering can be safely tolerated. Senator Overman has only confirmed what every man in official life in Washington knew for the last month, information that was produced and discussed without any apparent effort at discretion shortly after Secretary of War Baker's statement of February 20th last, published in the official information bulletin.

There has since come to light much of the sorry tale of the failure of the 1918 airplane program of the United States. The Tribune has referred to the situation briefly heretofore. The known details are many and their description would involve much space. But they disclose one naked fact:

Influences that have apparently baffled honest government officials have worked against production from the minute the airplane program was first arranged.

How successfully they have worked against America and in favor of the enemy cannot be adequately conveyed by saying the program is eight months or ten months behind, or that it is 75 per cent or 85 per cent short of the schedule production. But the thing was epitomized by Senator New when he stated that instead of the scheduled 12,000 battleplanes on July 1st there would have only thirty-seven.

The enemy knows just what its spies and plotters have done. Publication of the facts cannot advantage him, but it would help Americans to understand and spur them to efforts to overcome the evil within. The government should be frank with the people if it would have the full efforts of the people.

There is some indication that henceforth it will be frank with reference to the airplane situation. It cannot well do otherwise in face of the determination of Congress to see the enemy at home and abroad overcome.

BY TWO EDUCATORS.

Mr. Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of the Oakland public school department, in addressing the joint teachers' institute yesterday, outlined briefly the new conception of the place and the duty of the schools in relation to the political, social, moral and spiritual life of the country—a conception riveted by the lessons of the war. Said Mr. Hunter:

"The war has emphasized our national ideals and revealed not only to the teaching profession, but to all our American citizenship who read and think, the responsibility of the public educational system for incorporating those ideals as life attitudes in all American citizens.

"But the war's results to education are not confined to emphasis of national ideals and the insistence that these ideals be incorporated as an integral part of our teaching practices. They have revealed to us with new vision the defects in our social system and in our plan of producing a wholesome national development.

"There is an insistent demand that the State shall train universally for citizenship by holding itself responsible for all its youth during their minority, or at least up to the age of 18 years. To do this we must have State registration of all minors. We must account for our youthful citizens, either in schools or in productive part time classes, up to the age when they become responsible and contributive citizens and up to the time when their attitudes of national life are fairly well fixed."

Mr. Will C. Wood, State commissioner of elementary education, collaborated with Mr. Hunter's thought when he said:

"The war has taught us that we should lay greater emphasis on the teaching of patriotism. For years we were told that patriotism could not be taught; that it is absorbed from the environment. That false doctrine was 'made in Germany.' We can and should teach patriotism. We should teach all our pupils to salute the flag, to sing our patriotic songs, to revere the forefathers and to love America. If any teacher believes that it is wrong to teach that our side is right in this war, he should be discharged forthwith. He has no right to receive money from a country to which he is not loyal. Our great problem now and after the war is to make democracy safe for democracy.

"If the war results in a draw we shall have to speed up our schools to educate men for the coming struggle, which will be a contest of trained minds even to a greater extent than the present war. Teachers are being drawn into the national service in great numbers at twice the salaries paid in some schools. In consequence we face a shortage of teachers. If our schools are to run as usual, salaries must increase to keep pace with the cost of living. The industries and government are now competing with the schools for trained men and women."

It is gratifying to observe that two leading figures in the educational work of California have taken cognizance of the mistakes of the past—mistakes of unthinking and unknowing propagandists who undertook among other things to delete history of inspiring and immortal truths, who proceeded upon the theory that to think of communal duties and obligations in terms of nationality was to be guilty of shortsightedness. They give a promise that the errors of blundering, lumbering pacifist aids of the German military hierarchy will be corrected before it is too late.

Considering the oft-recurring and fatal accidents at the aviation schools, it is almost time to inquire, if there is not something amiss in the methods of instruction. As so many fatalities occur at two or three places, there is a suggestion that the cause may not be general. It has been stated that scarcely more danger now attends an excursion through the air in an airplane than over a highway in an automobile; but this is not borne out by the high percentage of accidents that occur at the aviation camps. If it is safe after one knows how, there ought to be a reasonably safe method of learning how.

They are going to give moving picture performances in the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City. Douglas Fairbanks and Fatty Arbuckle (in film) will occupy the stage from which stars of song have thrilled aristocratic audiences. Verily, war is a great teacher.

FEWER BILLIONS NEEDED.

The last War Tax bill was the greatest ever passed in any country. The provision was so ample that the money could not be spent. For the first half of the fiscal year the military establishment spent less than two billions, against estimates of over eight billions for the full year. The Shipping Board spent less than one-fifth of the provision for it. The navy's expenses were rather more than half of the expectation. Probably all would have been glad to have had more money spent, if well spent, and there is some hope of that result being reached. The control of costs is constantly better, and the total spent is constantly rising. Nevertheless, it comes as a relief that the approaching Liberty Loan will probably be for about only one-half of the debt or one billion which has been expected, but must be for more than the authorized $2,500,000,000 which have not been issued. Although the amount to be raised and spent within the rest of the fiscal year is reduced, authority will be taken in all likelihood, to issue a balance over the third Liberty Loan not very different from the amount now expected.

It is necessary to provide for contingencies in war, and there are uncertainties other than those of a military nature. There are sanguine estimates of the war tax collectors but they cannot be relied upon as cash. The amount of advances to our allies also is an uncertain quantity. Likely to be larger perhaps, because lately they have been running smaller. The scale of government finance is indicated sufficiently by the fact that there is now pending a deficiency bill for over a billion. With billions voted and unpaid, and with unforeseen expenses of over a billion. It is clear that the financial managers have little idea of how they are coming out.

In normal times a manageable deficit is preferable to a surplus, which leads to extravagance. It is difficult to say how much more for results should have all the money they can spend in advertising. The accounts should be continued but the money should be provided without avail or outlay. The few billions are not about to be lost for many years still to be called by the bill, not introduced seems a comparatively moderate rate that the money market will feel relieved rather than burdened by a total which would have shortened embarrassment but a few months ago.—New York Times.

NOTES AND COMMENT

Any criticism of the management of the war is sure to be set down to partisanship. Still, it is true that but one American war plane has been sent across, somebody would seem to be entitled to say something.

We now have Trotsky again. His official status is in doubt and it would seem to be safe to just let him go on talking, as we are in the habit of letting the wind blow.

Are we to hear the familiar declamation, "Internment," in connection with the hotel clerk who confesses to rifling the mails of government agents, and was taken while celebrating the Hun drive? The country seems full of enemy workers, who appear to have nothing to fear.

The official tenderness for the I. W. W. has borne just the fruit that might have been expected. They are continually cropping up and keeping on with their deviltry.

Woolwine men seem to have gained a point in the declared predilection of Fred H. Hall of Bakersfield. Hall is an undoubted Democrat, and has the characteristics of a live wire.

The dolms on the battle front very naturally dilute interest in State politics. To talk of a fight for the governorship while the fate of nations may be involved in such a fight has been involved in such a fight as has been in progress on the firing line is to take up a dwarfed subject in comparison.

It is uncertain just what the effect of the more recent war activities will be on Wisconsin. It may encourage the pro-German sentiment, and it may awaken latent patriotism of the loyal people. Opinions differ, but great efforts are being made to elect a United States senator on patriotic lines.

In the midst of war distractions we are informed that Secretary Daniels has decreed that the skirts of the yeomanries at the Pacific naval stations must come within eight inches of the ground.

The daylight saving plan of setting the clock ahead will not be made to alter mail schedules. They will remain the same, but the watches and clocks will be changed. As near as this can be understood, it is likely to confuse the habit of watching the clock.

The San Francisco woman jury that set in a divorce case wherein a husband beat his wife was not long in coming to a verdict. It granted the decree as prayed for, and expressed an extra judicial opinion that wife beaters ought to be sent to the firing line.

"The catfish," says the Stockton Record, "has many virtues and only one defect—that it is a catfish." But there is its looks. Certainly it is not an ichthyological beauty.

Anatomical item from the Stockton Record: "They say that hoop skirts are to be worn under bathing suits by the women this summer. Don't believe it! It would be too sensible. It would keep a woman's wet skirts from clinging to her form and—well, that's enough to condemn it, isn't it?"

The San Diego Union tells of a timepiece that does not need to be set ahead: "Daylight saving will have little effect on the courthouse clock. That old relic has been slow for the better part of the time since the boom days of '09, and won't have to be turned back."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Hot cross buns, which are sold and eaten Good Friday, will not be coated with icing this year, according to an announcement by the United States food administration. Hot cross buns are considered as bread by the food administration, and rule 1 of the baking regulations forbids the use of icing and limits the amount of other ingredients in bread and rolls. The use of raisins, currants and spices in these buns is not prohibited, however.—Holtville Tribune.

When the Camp Fremont troops go to the front they will go "a-singing." Right now it is no unusual sight to see 500 young fellows taking daily instruction in chorusing the national airs, the Southern melodies and the latest ballads.—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

Federal Fish Administrator W. C. Crandall has decided, according to the San Pedro Pilot, not to fix at present the prices to be paid by dealers to fishermen for fresh fish. "It will be time enough to take action when the fish become scarce again," said Captain Crandall, who continued: "Already we are beginning to see some benefits of the removal of restrictions against the use of nets. The removal of the ban on trawl nets has increased the supply of halibut and barracuda and at the same time resulted in a check upon the oversupply of rock cod by giving the fishermen an opportunity to travel outside the three-mile limit."—Vancouver Islander.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

Three masked highwaymen mounted on bicycles and armed to the teeth entered the home of Henry Hyland at the head of Thirteenth avenue, bound Hyland and a companion and robbed them of $63.

The Hotel Company of this city built a peculiar boat for the Yukon river. She had a steel frame, twin screws, vertical engines, and is 50 by 20 feet, with a draft of one foot. The peculiarity consisted in the working of the twin screws in alleyways. This was made necessary by the diameter of the screws being greater than the draft of the vessel.

Mrs. Anna E. Haight, widow of ex-Governor Henry H. Haight, died at her home, 1201 Alice street.

Owing to a division between factions of the Young Men's Republican League, two leagues were formed. Harry Paulding's claims to the presidency of the league were denied by the opposition.

BATTLEFRONT OF GERMANS IS NOW DOUBLED

LONDON, March 29.—The battlefront of the great German drive has grown to nearly twice its original size as the combat enters its ninth day.

The offensive opened on a comparatively straight front, extending from Arras southward and slightly eastward to La Fere, a distance of about fifty miles.

The area comprised in the new drive now consists of an irregular triangle, with Arras as its southwestern point, Montdidier as its southern point, and the southern edge of St. Gobain forest, as its southeastern point. Each of its sides is roughly, fifty miles long in an air line, while the base is thirty-five miles across. The territory recovered by the Germans comprises about 375 square miles.

In the original battle line the fighting has extended northward from Arras to Arras, a distance of about five miles, and southward from La Fere to St. Gobain forest, a distance of about seven miles. But all sides of this huge triangle are extremely irregular, especially the western side. Field Marshal Haig, in his night communique, described the fighting from "south of the Somme to north of Arras" as a "very mixed front."

The British and French lines apparently converge at Warvillers, about ten miles south of the Somme. This includes slightly more than half of the present battle front. From Haig's statement it would appear, then, that the entire present frontage is between ninety and a hundred miles.

Banners Welcome Tribune To Thirteenth-Street Home

Pennants Bearing Greetings Displayed in the Windows; Formal Opening Tomorrow

"THE TRIBUNE IS WELCOME TO THIRTEENTH STREET," banners and pennants bearing this greeting were displayed in the windows of every store and business house from Jefferson street to Lake Merritt today as part of the program of welcome arranged by the merchants of Thirteenth street and the committee representing the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Exchange.

The pennants made a gala appearance and tomorrow they will be carried by the automobiles when the merchants leave the luncheon at the Hotel Oakland to attend the open-air exercises at Thirteenth and Franklin streets to celebrate the formal opening of the new TRIBUNE building. The banners are in red and black and are placed in every window.

The ceremonies tomorrow, from the gathering at noon at the Hotel Oakland to the open-air exercises and the formal tour of inspection of the new plant, will be filmed by the Romance Film Company, and will later be shown at a local theater. It is planned to make the pictures an educational nature, showing the entire process of getting out a metropolitan newspaper. The films will be shown in many cities and will serve to advertise Oakland as well as to show the working of a modern newspaper plant. The films will be made by O. L. J. Myers.

The committee in charge completed arrangements for the big program tomorrow to celebrate the opening of the new building. City and county officials, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' Exchange, Rotary club, manufacturers' committee and other civic and commercial organizations will take part in the ceremonies.

The general arrangements are being made by a committee representing the merchants of Thirteenth street, the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Exchange. Herbert T. Johnson is chairman of the general committee.

In addition to Grand President Grace Stroman of Los Angeles, grand president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West; Harmon Bell, president of the Oakland War Service League; Supervisor William J. Hamilton, representing Alameda county; Judge William H. Donahue, representing the "bench"; District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, representing the younger men of the Bar Association; Commissioner W. H. Edwards, representing the city of Oakland; Fred Campbell, the poet, and R. M. Fitzgerald.

The open-air exercises at Thirteenth and Franklin streets will open with a band concert, followed by short addresses by city and county officials and several public men.

Joe V. Snyder, grand president of the Native Sons of the Golden West and publisher of the Grass Valley Union, will come to Oakland tomorrow to take part in the ceremonies as a compliment to Joseph R. Knowland, publisher of The TRIBUNE, and will be one of the principal speakers. William Nat Friend, prominent in civic and social work in Oakland and a former reporter on The TRIBUNE, will be master of ceremonies. The program will be opened by Chairman Johnson of the Thirteenth street merchants' committee and the general committee representing the

U. S. TO AUDIT ACCOUNTS OF MEAT PACKERS

WASHINGTON, March 29.—An immediate audit of the accounts of all packers is to be made, the Food Administration announced this afternoon. In a brief statement it was said that the audit would be undertaken by the Federal Trade Commission, with which arrangements have been made, and that it would be for the purpose of learning whether the large packers had kept within the maximum profit of 2 1/2 per cent and the smaller packers within 3 per cent.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE

Following the outdoor ceremonies there will be a formal inspection of the building by the guests of The TRIBUNE. The public has been invited to visit the building and inspect all departments from 10:30 o'clock in the morning till 10 o'clock tomorrow night.

The outdoor exercises will be preceded by a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland, arranged by the joint committee. H. T. Johnson will preside at the luncheon. Music will be provided by the Masonic quartet, which will lead in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner." Mrs. F. W. Lawler and Mrs. Wharry Lewis will sing. Addresses will be made by H. C. Capwell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and J. C. Downey, president of the Associated Press, United Press and International News Service, recording in Oakland within a few minutes after they occur events that are shaping the world's history in this country and in Europe.

The handling of news in the editorial department, the telephones, typewriters, copy desk, pneumatic copy tubes, which speed the news on the way to the composing room, will be shown.

In the composing room the battery of linotype machines, one of the greatest inventions in the history of printing, the new metal furniture and time saving devices, the stereotyping department with its air pressure, automatic steam drying tables, will be objects of interest.

SPECIAL ELEVATOR. From here the metal plates are dropped by a special elevator to the basement, there to be clamped on the galleys of the massive press.

Commercial printing, photo engraving and other departments will be visited. The assembly hall and dining rooms for employees on the roof will be inspected.

The TRIBUNE occupies the entire building and every floor will be thrown open to the public during the public inspection.

The TRIBUNE press, built for The TRIBUNE by R. Hoe & Co. of New York and London, which required four freight cars to transport it from the East, will be in operation running off the Saturday and Sunday morning editions of The TRIBUNE. This press, which has a capacity of 72,000 papers an hour, is the latest product of the keenest inventive minds in the newspaper world, and is the most perfect, as well as the most intricate piece of newspaper machinery ever assembled.

Visitors will be taken on a tour through the building, making the inspection educational in nature, as it will show the process of getting out a metropolitan newspaper from the moment the news comes into the building, either in the form of notes taken by a reporter of The TRIBUNE staff, or in the ticking of telegraph instruments of the Associated Press, United Press and International News Service, recording in Oakland within a few minutes after they occur events that are shaping the world's history in this country and in Europe.

HART ADMITS CONNECTION IN MAVERICK CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29. (Market)—by frequent clashes between U. S. Attorney John W. Preston and Attorney Bert Schlusinger, the direct examination of Harry J. Hart, wealthy shipping broker, indicted for conspiracy, now on trial before Judge Van Fleet, was completed this morning and his cross-examination which consumed two days begun.

Under cross-examination today Hart admitted that he had signed himself as president of the Maverick Steamship Company as early as July, 1913, and when asked to explain certain telegrams which passed between himself and Robert Cappelletti, North German Lloyd agent, and alleged by the government to have been Captain Von Papen's secret service representative on the Pacific coast, declined to answer after objections by Schlusinger.

When asked by the court why he should not sustain the objection, Preston said: "I will show from papers seized in Wolf Siegel's office in New York as late as July, 1913, that the German embassy at Washington, through Cappelletti and Bopp, were directing the movements of the Maverick, which is admitted by Hart to have been his vessel."

Attorney Schlusinger, for Hart, said: "It is the case, we will plead guilty."

The objection was then sustained and Hart admitted that he paid super cargo Jack Starr-Hunt $100 a month while he was on the Maverick and that he received this money from Cappelletti and believed "that it was given to Cappelletti by E. H. Von Shack, former German vice-consul here."

The United States attorney then revealed to the jury that this investigation by the government had been started as early as 1913 and that Hart had come to his office and attempted to explain his connection with the Maverick operation and this was followed by Hart's own indictment.

PRIMER PLANT EXPLOSION IS FATAL TO THREE

SWANTON, Vt., March 29.—The International Explosives Company plant is in ruins today and one woman is dead, the result of three explosions last night. Two other women were fatally injured.

The detonations rocked the village and shattered windows, set a blaze of fire and crippled telephone service.

It was reported the first explosion occurred at a table where several young girls were working on primers. One of these primers, accidentally discharged, set off the others.

Two men employees crawled into a shed near the main building, raised a trap door and lowered 500 pounds of fulminate of mercury into a water flume below, thus preventing a threatened catastrophe. The International Explosives Company was making primers for the allies.

POLICE ARE FINAL GUARD OF HONOR

The funeral procession went from the home to St. Mary's church, Eighth and Jefferson streets, where services were held. The police escort then moved on with the remains to Sixteenth and Broadway. Members of the inspectors department acted as honorary pallbearers. The active pallbearers were Sergeant Robert Forgie, Sergeant Charles Hennrich, Patrolman Fred J. Quinn, Thomas Merriam, John J. ## WOMAN ELECTED SCHOOL TRUSTEE; NO OPPOSITION

ALBANY, March 29.—Without the trouble of a choice of a school trustee, Mrs. Laura Ryan was today elected school trustee of the town of Albany to succeed herself. Mrs. Ryan had no opposition for the office and only the formality of a regular number of votes (12) being cast in her favor.

In contrast to the town election, a warm political battle is being waged in Albany preceding the coming municipal election of Monday, April 8.

As an interesting feature of the campaign is the fact for the office of city treasurer, for which two women, Mrs. Laura Ryan, the incumbent, and Mrs. Fred Ryan, are the contestants. Mrs. Ryan was one of the women who served in the election two years ago.

In addition to a treasurer, two trustees and a city clerk are to be elected. Twelve trustees are to be elected. Twelve trustees are to be elected. Twelve trustees are to be elected.

One and one-half pounds of wheat flour or wheat meal (or will be the weekly maximum for each person in California after April 1, according to a statement issued from the office of the Food Administrator, Ralph B. Merritt. If a person exceeds this amount others will be deprived to a similar extent, says the statement, for the supply on hand will not permit of more than the per capita allowance of one and one-half pounds weekly.

Very little is to be done in the opportunity of potatoes, fresh vegetables, corn and wheat flour in place of wheat, the food bureau is secure today and oats products should be used. The statement says in part:

SUPPLY SHORT.
Our supply of wheat has become alarmingly short and there is no relief in the situation until the next harvest, it is months hence.

"The situation puts it squarely up to the people whether they desire themselves wheat dishes or force America on a bread ration and the allies to still greater suffering than they are now undergoing."

"We have a fair supply of corn and oats and there are great quantities of fresh vegetables and potatoes. If the 100,000,000 people of the United States save a pound of wheat a week in addition to the present reduction of consumption of wheat a tremendous saving will have been effected."

"The government is dependent upon the voluntary effort of the people in this saving. Many families are eliminating wheat products entirely. Every household should use 'victory bread,' one and three-fourths pounds a week, carrying the required 20 per cent of wheat substitute."

While the government puts no limit on other cereal flour, it does still urgently request the substitution of other foods."

PRICES DOWN.
Merritt said prices have declined in wheat flour, bread, tomatoes, corn and pork. There were increases during the last quarter of 1917 in ham, bacon, lard, butter, cheese and eggs.

Flour went down 10 cents for a 24-lb. sack so that an average for the country at 14 cents last October was a trifle over 10 cents in December.

REQUA SAYS U. S. OIL SUPPLY AMPLIFIED
CHICAGO, March 29.—Whatever is necessary to obtain or the government the supply of gasoline and other petroleum products essential to the conduct of the war will be met by the fuel administration. Mark L. Requa, chief of the oil division, told the petroleum congress here today.

Requa assured the oil men, however, that government control of the industry does not signify danger. The United States, by virtue of its great oil supplies, is responsible in a great measure, or providing the oil needed to win the war, Requa said. He estimated that the year's demands would amount to 55,000,000 barrels. While emphasizing that there is no danger of a shortage, he urged more efficient methods of combustion, lubrication and general conservation on the part of consumers and the wise handling of petroleum wells with search for new sources of production.

DELEGATES CHOSEN
VALLEJO, March 29.—Vallejo Patriot No. 17 N. S. G. W. will be the trustee next time by Louis Busch, Louis and Michael Higuera. These well-known centers having been elected is due to a recent meeting. The delegates named are Leslie K. Floyd and George D. Muffel Sr.

BOY IS KILLED

SONORA, March 29.—James Johnson, 13, son of Gus Johnson, a moving picture theater owner of Newman, was accidentally shot and killed at Jamestown by Raymond Ople, son of Justice Ople of Jamestown. The two boys and the Ople family were in the kitchen of the Ople house. Raymond was trying to extract a cartridge from a one-barrel shotgun when the large exploded, striking the Johnson boy in the hand. The dead boy was a nephew of Roman Higuera, district attorney of this county.

JANE ADDAMS ENDEARS SELF TO FEDERATION

Did Jane Addams ever doubt that she is beloved, she learned last evening how deeply she is loved in the hearts of California. The clubwomen of the state and the public in the east shore cities laid their homage at her feet and she received it with that simple grace which is the expression of her splendid serenity. While the multitude went to the Municipal Opera House last evening to see and hear Jane Addams tell the story of her life, the clubwomen of the state gathered in the auditorium of the California Federation of Women's Clubs to hear her speak of her life and work.

When Miss Addams was introduced by Mrs. Robert J. Burlette as "a Citizen of the World, who lived in the world for the world," the great throng came to its feet and applauded her coming to the stage with a fervor that was almost deafening.

"Women for the first time in the history of the world have come to the fore to connect their daily living with their high ideals," said Miss Addams, urging the clubs to studies in the romance and history of food. Going back to the tribal days she revived many of the legends which had to do with women in her relation to harvests and food.

"The Hague scheme of peace failed because it did not have the basis of human need. Out of the present food crisis may arise the healing of the nations, if only the peoples of the United States will join together in solving the prosaic task of daily living; if the women will respond and follow the traditions of feeding the family. The food situation has its political significance. A new international relation which the world has never had will be born from the food crisis."

OPENED WITH APOLOGY.

It was not the women, agreeing on a simple dress benefiting a war-time convention, who introduced the subject, but a man coming before them in embarrassment, lacking the proper raiment for the platform. Dr. Schorr began his se-

Women Clubs Assert Rights Act on 17 Articles of Faith Federation Concludes Work

All the oratory which has been bottled up during the four days which the California Federation of Women's Clubs have been in convention in Oakland, the guest of Ebel, burst forth this morning when the resolutions were presented. Seventeen articles of faith went forth from the body representing 50,000 women, bearing to the state and nation their attitude toward matters and things for the coming twelve months. Seventeen? Nay, but sixteen, for one resolution innocently proposed and not so innocently accepted, was referred to the executive board of the federation, for further consideration. It had to do with the endorsement of a bill now pending before Congress pertaining to the accreditation of property to the United States army.

STIRRED BY RESOLUTION.

The reading of the resolution dropped cleanly into an air made electric from the shock which the disposal of its immediate predecessor had given. Coming from the General Federation of Women's Clubs, a request had been made to the California Federation, as to all other state federations, that endorsement be made of a movement to require periodical physical examination. It is the greater percentage of middle-age mortality in the United States over every other nation which has inaugurated the health examination drive. The resolution was passed.

Address by directing attention to his business suit and making apology for its appearing, proving that masculinity has even a deeper regard for clothes than femininity.

"Sometimes I wish that a German spy might go with me on my tour of the United States and report truthfully what he sees to the Kaiser. The intelligent leaders of the German people might then understand that the rolling up of the nation's resources and the unity of America meant that the allies only could win."

The nation-wide movement which has found a re-birth in war in making American citizens of all who live in this country, lent the theme to Dr. Schorr's address. He brought forth statistics to show how, with ten millions of aliens coming into the United States within ten years, and seven millions remaining to make their home here, but two and one-half millions ever considered citizenship and two-thirds never learned the English language, while the greater part of their savings were returned to the native countries.

FURTHER STATISTICS.

He told that in twenty-six states more than ten per cent of the population were foreign born and in ten states 100,000 of the foreign born cannot speak English. Of the thirteen millions of aliens in the United States five millions do not speak English, although eight millions are engaged in the industries which immediately contributed to defense work.

San Francisco of all the cities in the nation had the largest per centage of foreigners, the register in the first draft, the figures being set at 51.73 per cent against 40 per cent in Chicago and 29.55 per cent in New York.

tion was presented in proper form to be received with a motion to lay upon the table." Not permitting of debate, the dis-courtesy to the General Federation by the California branch was made necessary.

A like motion met the reading of the article approving the osteopathic profession's recognition by federal authorities, but the parliamentarians of the voting body who were interested in the fate of the measure came to its rescue. It was not permitted to be discarded by a goodly majority who put on their fighting arms.

ELOQUENCE IS LOOSED.

Mrs. A. A. Schorr, vice-president-at-large of the federation, brought forth a motion to refer the matter to committees, which was amended to executive board. Then the impromptu parliamentary drill and flow of eloquence was on.

Rising votes were in constant demand. Petitions to settle and not speeches made by advocates with sidelong on the profession cast by other who opposed. Declaring that there was no wish to "soft pedal" the action, the statement was met by a suggestion that the report of the committee had not been adopted. An ardent front row was refused recognition.

"I rise to a question of information," she said. "I want to know how to vote." She was not told, but the resolution went to the executive board for final disposition.

The north and the south came to the mat again at the morning session when the resolution asking for a university farm school in Southern California was proposed. San Luis Obispo delegates halted proceedings to tell how their State Agricultural School was answering the need. The arguments that the government was discouraging now buildings, the fact that the Davis school was depleted by the draft, and that the agricultural education of boys and girls should begin before reaching the high school age, advanced by the northern women was met with equally convincing arguments from the southern delegates that Riverside offered facilities and equipment for the new school, that in increased food production training was necessary and that students could not afford the long trip to the north. The local women gave in gracefully, and the recommendation will go to the proper authorities requesting the southern school.

Women will not be denied their just and necessary place in the governing bodies of the world if the spirit of the 1918 convention is carried out. It is asked that when the Councils of the Nations shall be called to arrange peace terms, women be given representation therein.

WILL REMIND GOVERNOR.

To the governor will go a reminder that when vacancies occur on the board of regents of the State University, the appointment of a woman would be grateful.

Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles as president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. E. G. Denniston of San Francisco as director from California to the same body, succeeding themselves in a second two-year term were enthusiastically named.

When the 700 clubwomen return to their homes throughout the state superior judges may tremble if they do not intend to enforce the provisions of the Redlight Abatement Law. A resolution was endorsed reaffirming the belief of the federation in the measure and calling upon the members to watch carefully the judges having to do with its carrying out with definite action when not proper.

Endorsement as in years past was given to the national prohibition amendment with a communication addressed to President Wilson and Congress calling upon them to abolish the liquor traffic as a war measure. The governor and legislature will receive resolutions on the proposed national suffrage amendment. Other measures had to do with approval of the inauguration of the Victory Bell throughout the state; regarding extended work in Indian welfare; increased appropriation by the university for the training of teachers, particularly in physical education and kindred subjects; pledging support to all federal phases of defense work, including Red Cross, Red Star, Liberty Bonds, War Savings and such clubs, Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., etc.

That international relations might not be embarrassed nor that social hatred be engendered, a plea was addressed to the women of California to give vigilance in the film houses that pictures portraying racial or class prejudices be not permitted.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of Los Angeles was chairman of the resolution committee.

The final work of the convention which closed today was in perfecting the work of incorporation of the federation and adopting a constitution and by laws. The 339 delegates who had a vote in the business of the session gave their approval to the expenditure of $1500, for Liberty Bonds.

With the reading of the President's message and the round table of district presidents the seventeenth annual convention was adjourned this afternoon. Mrs. Cable made an impassioned plea to the clubwomen of the state to remain courageous and to take their responsibility bravely that peace might be brought to the world swiftly.

The following federation problems were discussed by district presidents this afternoon: "County Federation," Mrs. Charles C. Arnold of Riverside; "Financing the Federation," Mrs. Charles C. Arnold of Grass Valley; "Relation of Districts to the State Federation," Mrs. Frank A. Brooks of San Francisco; "Departmental Work," Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of Los Angeles; "What the Federation Means to the Individual Club," Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald, Fresno; "The Merit System of Appointment," Mrs. Katherine H. Smith, Richmond.

The adjournment was made in time for the delegates to attend the annual rendition of "Stabat Mater" in the Greek Theater.

BLAMES LOSSES UPON DEPOSITORS

The poor business judgment of the 13,000 depositors of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company is blamed by Receiver E. De Los Angeles in his final report, just filed, for the fact that the depositors will recover only 14 1/2 per cent on the total deposits of $9,250,000.

De Los Angeles says that but for the advice and check of the depositors it would have been possible to sell 40,000 shares of Western Pacific at $30 a share, whereas 27,000 shares were sold for only $30.00. For the same reason, he says, it was impossible to sell at an opportune time stocks of the water company, glass factory, coal mining, pottery, powder and brick companies.

The report is accompanied by a petition for a final dividend payment of 1 per cent, which will be the last. The sum of less than $2,000,000 has been realized by the depositors. The company failed ten years ago. The present receiver was appointed in 1916 to succeed E. J. LeBreton.

DOUBLE FUNERAL TRAGEDY CLIMAX

The double funeral of Howard Gregg and his wife, whose bullet riddled bodies were found Wednesday night in their home at 4492 Pleasant Valley Court, will be held tomorrow afternoon from the California crematorium under the direction of Coroner Grant D. Miller.

The police investigation into the deaths has been ended, according to Captain of Inspectors Green, who has come to the conclusion that Gregg shot his wife and then turned the revolver upon himself, blowing out his brains.

That the tragedy occurred Tuesday night is now the belief of the police. It was learned during the investigation that Gregg and his wife had a violent quarrel in a local restaurant earlier in the evening, Tuesday.

Mrs. Gregg left the restaurant while her husband was out of the dining room and he is believed to have followed her home.

According to the restaurant management the couple frequently dined there and as frequently quarreled.

Why Shouldn't Shoe Manufacturers Back Up Your War-Economies?

THE American woman wants style in her foot-wear. She must dress her feet properly without extravagance. She works hard these days to save food and fuel in her household—making sacrifices on every hand. Prices of the things she has to buy keep going up and she wonders if she is the only one doing her bit—if business concerns are giving her the co-operation they should. Right now, with Easter close at hand, shoes have her attention.

Everyone knows leather and labor cost more. Where is a saving possible?

The Regal Shoe Company has demonstrated many ways to cut out the customary waste in the shoe trade. For example, our great factories are concentrated on fewer styles and lasts—in the smart, wanted leathers. Less kinds of shoes—more of the right kind.

It is good to know you can get a Regal Shoe in the style you want—made to meet your war-time needs.

To harmonize with this season's slender silhouette in clothes, we have designed the "Minola"—(illustrated here)—a shoe of unusual smartness—with sturdiness built in to give you good service. In Mahogany Brown Calf-skin, with straight tip, or in black Kid-skin . . . $6.75

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them with opiates.

MORELAND HEADS FOR BIG CITIES

STOCKTON, March 29.—With more than half of its difficult journey at an end and with victory only three days away, the Moreland "flier," now en route from San Diego to Sacramento arrived here yesterday afternoon. The run was made from Fresno, the truck being officially checked out.

"As each day of the run passes interesting economy of operation and time-saving figures pile up. When the final compilation of figures is made and given to the business public, there is no doubt but what those who have been of the opinion that the motor truck could not compete with the freight train will be forced to throw such a conviction into the discard.

"The present run, which will cover a period of three weeks, is of multifarious interest. Many complaints have been made by shippers because of the inadequacy of the freight yard in handling consignments of merchandise. To alleviate this condition is the object of the experiment.

"The Moreland Motor Truck Company of Los Angeles is going to a tremendous expense to prove that motor truck transportation in the state of California is not only possible but that it is practical.

"At the present time, freight delivery via railroad is merely problematical. In addition, the cost for shipping merchandise between any of the points mentioned above is far in excess of what the maximum motor truck conveyance expense would be.

"Already the freight train schedules have been completely shattered by the Moreland truck. By the time it reaches its destination, Sacramento, the amount of time taken for loading, unloading and shipping to the various cities visited by the Moreland, will be at least forty-eight hours ahead of that of the railroad. In other words, the motor truck has solved the present freight congestion problem and the introduction of a permanent motor truck carrier system between San Diego and Sacramento, will come as no surprise to those acquainted with the advantages of such an arrangement," said Roy D. Hearst, general sales manager of the Moreland Company.

Throughout the entire run the truck is carrying capacity loads. A change of lead has taken place at Los Angeles, Bakersfield, Fresno and Stockton. One of the novel features of the present test is the fact that merchandise is taken aboard at the shipper's platform and delivered direct to the buyer's freight house. By the railroad system it is necessary to employ the use of a dory to and from the freight yards for each load.

This morning the truck departed for Oakland and will arrive, according to schedule, time at Oakland this afternoon. The Moreland crew is composed of W. M. Ferguson and John Poplin, both of the Moreland factory.

ARMY OFFENDERS GET PRISON TERMS

Refusal to obey an order of a commissioned officer has resulted in sentence of ten years in Alcatraz prison and discharge from the army without honor for Earle E. Moore, a private in the Coast Artillery corps, stationed at Fort Winfield Scott. Major General Arthur Murray, commanding the Western Department, sentenced him from going to prison for twenty years, cutting the sentence of the military court in half.

For insulting the flag, Private Joseph C. Miller, Battery B, 83rd Field Artillery, will serve a year at Alcatraz and be dishonorably discharged from the service. He will do an additional five years for trying to stir his way out of the guardhouse at Fort D. A. Russell. Four other soldiers of the same organization, convicted of complicity in the plot to escape, were sentenced as follows: Private Joseph Cox, five years; Privates Harold Hurlburt, Herbert Riddle and Andy Armen, three years' imprisonment. All will be dishonorably discharged.

Sergeant William G. Parks, quartermaster corps, stationed at the Presidio of Monterey, was given a sentence of five years following charges of theft, disorderly conduct, gambling and a number of other things.

Convicted as a draft deserter, John Tadewich of Missoula, Mont., was sentenced to three years in the United States penitentiary at McNeil Island. Other sentences and charges were: Private First Class Russel W. Pay, quartermaster corps, desertion and theft, one year and dishonorable discharge; Private George W. Pitt, First Company—Coast Artillery Corps sleeping on post, two years; Private William E. Kelly, Company C, Twelfth Infantry, desertion in time of war, two years.

HAS SOLDIER HOME

REDLANDS, March 29.—"Convalescent Home" for soldiers and sailors who have suffered reverses of health while in camp or active service, is the idea of Mrs. D. J. Carpenter of Del Rosa, near here, who has her plan now in operation as an auxiliary to the war community service in Southern California.

Mrs. Carpenter has a son in the service, and when he left for the east in the first part of his journey "Over There," she felt that she wanted to do something for his comrades, inasmuch as he was gone and she could not help him over the rough places.

For this purpose she established a convalescent home at Del Rosa, where boys from Camp Kearny and other cantonments may go to regain their health after illness or injury. Games and other amusements are provided, and they are made to feel as though they were with the "folks at home." Her plan has been endorsed by the medical staff at Camp Kearny, and she has already taken care of two boys, while others will replace them when they return to duty. "Some,"

SUED FOR TREE

SAN RAFAEL, March 29.—It will cost Mrs. Hannah Peterson of Mill Valley $300 for chopping down one of D. H. Walker's cherry trees. Judgment for that amount was given Walker by Superior Judge E. T. Zook. Walker and Mrs. Peterson are neighbors. Walker's cherry tree shaded Mrs. Peterson's house. So she took her little hatchet and chopped it down. Thereupon Walker brought suit.

Judge Zook held that Walker was damaged to the extent of $100 and gave judgment for treble that amount for the willful trespass connected with the case.

Mrs. Peterson claimed the tree constituted a fire menace. She admitted the chopping.

More than just being cared for when one is recovering from sickness is needed," said Mrs. Carpenter. "These boys need to be amused; they need to have their surroundings as near like home as possible while getting well."

BABY IS BLINDED

STOCKTON, March 29.—As a result of having been pecked in the eye by a rooster, Barbara Ott, Willow street, 16 months of age, had the pupil removed yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's Home. The baby is doing well and will be taken to her home. It was impossible to save the eye, the sight being entirely gone. The child was visiting in the country when a large game rooster attacked her and, knocking her down, pecked her eye before her mother could reach her. This is the second accident of its kind that has occurred during the week, another child having had a hole bored through her skull by a vicious game cock a few days ago.

BIG ORANGE PRICE

PORTERVILLE, March 29.—Packing of the Tulare county Valencia orange crop is under way, best estimates placing the value of the fruit to the growers at $1,400,000. Because of the shortage of navel in Southern California, the late fruit is finding a ready market at $5.00

KILLED BY AUTO

SAN MATEO, March 29.—Celestino Panquelin, a gardener employed by the Hillsborough Nursery, was fatally injured when he was struck by an automobile driven by Lieutenant Walter Tracey of the 12th Infantry at Camp Fremont, on the state highway here.

Panquelin was taken to the Red Cross hospital, where he died a short time later from a fractured skull. The accident occurred in front of the home of Mrs. Cyrus Walker, Jr., San Mateo. Panquelin was walking along the road, and, according to the authorities, attempted to cross the highway in front of Lieutenant Tracey's machine. Panquelin is survived by widow and one son living here.

KEEP OLD GLORY

EVER IN SIGHT

Is your Flag up? The "Keep the Flag Up" campaign is on in earnest and the Boy Scouts will get you if you don't watch out. A census of every house in Oakland will be taken within the next few days and homes lacking some indication of patriotism will be reported to headquarters and a more formal request will be made. Already a generous response is noted and many homes show a small silk flag in the window; also many of the tattered worn-out flags have been replaced with new ones on down town buildings. It is expected that the work of the committee, Boy Scouts and the various other organizations will bring householders generally to the realization of the necessity of displaying the flag in every home, the owner of which is in sympathy with the fight for democracy.

Ready—the New Salad Oil

Which Takes the Place of Olive Oil

At About Half Its Present Cost

HERE is a new salad oil—a de luxe oil pressed from the heart of corn. It has a wonderfully delicate flavor—a flavor so inviting that salad lovers prefer it to all other oils. Douglas Oil replaces the Olive oil you can't get now, except at prohibitive prices. But it isn't a substitute. Douglas Oil is the better oil of the two for every salad purpose.

Only a Limited Quantity

We can only make a limited quantity of this rare oil, for it takes so much corn to make so little oil. Because only the corn heart is used, a bushel yields only a fraction over a pound.

Those who secure Douglas Oil make the acquaintance of the supreme salad oil—the most highly refined oil made—guaranteed absolutely pure.

Energy Food

Douglas Oil is not only an incomparable delicacy, but also an invaluable product considered from the standpoint of food value.

Energy, endurance, and general health depend upon a generous allowance of fat. Douglas Oil supplies this essential in the most easily digested and easily assimilated form.

A diet balanced with Douglas Oil used generously in salads and for cooking helps maintain health and energy. Eat fruit and vegetable salads with Douglas Dressings. They are both aids to appetite, and nourishing food.

Excels Butter for Cooking

The value of Douglas Oil does not end with salads. It is the de luxe cooking fat—for shortening, for frying, for seasoning.

All the arguments in favor of the generous use of butter apply to Douglas Oil. No other food fat, except butter, is so rich in life-giving qualities, so perfectly digested, so easily assimilated.

Buy At Your Dealers—Get the Douglas Recipe Book

Ask your dealer for Douglas Oil. It is about half the price of olive oil, so moderate in cost it is within reach of all. And—Douglas Oil is the de luxe brand—made by a process which insures each individual can perfect quality and flavor.

COOK BOOK FREE—While you use Douglas Oil exactly like olive oil in making all salad dressings, its uses in cooking are so varied and so valuable we have prepared a special recipe book. Compiled by food experts famous for skill in cookery, it introduces you to some wonderful new recipes and reproduces many standard ones, all made more delicious by the use of Douglas Oil. Your dealer will give this book to you, or write us or our selling representatives direct, and a copy will be mailed you.

DOUGLAS COMPANY Producers of Foods from Corn Cedar Rapids, Iowa

C. E. Cumberson Co., 25 Spear St., San Francisco, Cal.

For Salads
 The peculiarly sweet, appetizing flavor of Douglas Oil makes it the ideal oil for salad dressings. Douglas Oil mayonnaise is a treat for epicures. Douglas Oil French dressing will make you want more salads.

Douglas Mayonnaise
 Ideal Sandwich Filling

Make stiff mayonnaise with Douglas Oil (there is a special recipe in the Douglas Recipe Book). Use this as a sandwich filling, alone or with a leaf of lettuce or other seasonable salad "green." Cooked vegetables chopped fine, mix well with mayonnaise. A luncheon of Douglas Sandwiches may contain twice the energy value of the average luncheon menu. School children especially need Douglas Mayonnaise.

For Cooking
 Douglas Oil is a wonderful shortening. Once you try it you will bid farewell to all others, including butter. Season with it—for flavor and food value. Fry with it—it doesn't smoke or smell.

Douglas Baked Beans
 A Balanced One-Dish Food

Soak one cup of beans over night—Pinto or other new soft beans preferred. In the morning pour beans and water into a quart size enameled heat pot, add another cup of water and half a cup of Douglas Oil. Bake six to eight hours in slow oven. Add teaspoon of salt half hour before serving. There will be about half a cup of rich liquid around beans. Beans are rich in protein and carbohydrates. By adding Douglas Oil we get a balanced one-dish food.

Marines Are After Hollander to Give Howard New Worry

When Del Howard placed Hollander in care of the short patch, it was figured that the rest of the Oaks had for all of his worries, but now the news is spreading about town that the Marines are hot on the trail of the new Oak infielder and that he is thinking of joining them.

Sergeant Erbs of the local Marine recruiting office believes that Hollander would make a fine looking sentiment in a marine suit, and he will not pass up any chance to get hold of him. Whether or not Hollander is eligible for draft is not known, but it is a fact that Del Howard will not rest easy until he is sure what his new infielder intends to do. If Hollander takes a tumble to the sea soldiers, it will mean that either Cross or Harvey Christensen will fall in for the regular job, as right now there is not a better player available for the opening of the season.

BENICIA 4, B CO. 3.

After six innings of shutout ball Benicia defeated B Co. Oakland by two errors coupled with a hit. The playing of Oliver at first and Levalley, catching for B Company were the main features. Betty Remmers, for the losers, pitched a fine game, allowing but five hits and striking out eight. Next Sunday B Company will rock up with the Martinez nine.

Howard and Ewing After Running Mate For Mitze; Miller Shows Gameness

"Hack's" Errors Help Cubs to Win, but Then "Hack" Is Only Doing It to Help Out

By Carl E. Brazier

Del Howard's Oaks need another catcher. This is the only conclusion that can be reached after watching the club this far through the spring. For Danny Murray's hand will probably not permit him to get into action as catcher for some time to come, and even if he should get into action there would always be the risk that what would be a slight injury for another catcher would put his hand out of commission altogether. Honus Mitze cannot carry the burden of catching alone, and "Hack" Miller will not make a catcher.

Judgment on "Hack's" ability to convert himself from an outfielder to a catcher was passed by many of the fans some time ago, just on the strength of their acquaintance with him from last year. But such early judgment was hardly fair until "Hack" had had a chance; now "Hack" has had a good chance and the judgment is justified. He made three glaring errors behind the plate yesterday and each one of them figured in one run of the 4-to-0 win which the Chicago Cubs put over on the Oaks. "Hack" also was charged with a passed ball which almost helped along another score—at least it put a man within striking distance of the plate if Gene Calderia had not been so stingy with his arm.

NEW CATCHER SIGHT

Del Howard and Carl Ewing recognize the need of another catcher and they have their wires out to land one who will fill the job, so the fans have no howling. It may be a few days or it may be a couple of weeks before that catcher is landed, and in the meantime there is no harm done if Miller catches in these pre-season games, for there is no reason for the fans to jump on Miller because of his work as a catcher. Miller is an outfielder by trade and he deserves a world of credit for being willing to run his favor with the fans by getting in there behind the plate. But "Hack" will not make a catcher and "Hack" knows it, and it is all about as simple as that. He knows it too, and his use of Miller as catcher now means only that he is trying to save Mitze for the regular season. A siege of work during the opening week or two of the pre-season game until another catcher can be secured.

CHRIS COULD CATCH

By the way, Howard could do a lot worse than put Christensen in as relief catcher to Alex. Chris has been away from the catching job for a long time, but he showed in the Oaks-Crocker game that he should be back in the game. He got back into line and it might turn out that Chris could be developed into a satisfactory receiver where it looks as though Miller cannot be. There is no catching problem, there are enough chances of the infield problem working out itself to prevent any immediate worries about the catching and outfield partnerships are a cinch to cause no worry. The unfortunate necessity of putting Miller in there after the game is the only thing to mar the second battle of the Oaks and Cubs.

GARDNER HITS TWO

Babe Gardner hit a double and a single off Alexander, so he will have something to tell his grandchildren about some of these days. On his double, Gardner carried something that was a new one to the Oaks came to a score. He opened the second frame with a double to right and a single to left. The first run scored when Gardner's double hit the outfield fence and the ball came back to the pitcher. But when Gardner tried to score from third on Hollander's single, he was caught by Miller. Gardner was a bit too good and Bill Killefer had the ball from the plate by a good ten feet. Gardner's near score in the second was the first of the game. ### ONE HIT OFF TYLER

When Tyler took the mound for the first four innings, only one Oak scored a southpaw delivery. With two gone in the eighth Hollander pitched one into right and he died on first while Small stepped up. Twenty of the team's seven putouts made by the Cubs were handled by Tyler. The Oaks were in a condition of Oak weakness so much as to have three world series pitchers in there doing a lot of pitching. That is what these boys are doing. Howard sent two youngsters and Ray Kremer and Gene Calderia deserve all kinds of credit for the way they stepped up to the fire of the big leaguers. They were not an earned run against either pitcher, and with a more seasoned pitcher to catch them along the way, they might have been a different story. Not that the Oaks could have beaten Alexander, but they could have held him. That Cub score to beat lower division.

first frame by dumping one in front of the plate. He had Miller's throw beaten to first by several feet but the throw went into the bleachers and Plack rounded to second, when he scored when Paskert cracked a double to left center. Mensor hit Merkle's grounder get away from him and Paskert added another score. The Cubs had men on the bases in each of the remaining innings that Kremer worked, but only once did a Cub reach third and then he was thrown out by a bunt in front of the plate that a regular in the ninth inning. Kidder bounced a lucky one over Hollander's head, Deal dumped one in front of the plate and beat Miller's throw to first, the throw went low to Gardner and Killefer moved up to third, scoring on Rowdy Elliott's long fly to Middleton.

FOUR MORE OAK GAMES

PHILLIPS WINS FOR SEALS

SAN JOSE, March 28.—Andy Phillips, the young San Jose pitcher, put over his second win for the Seals when he buried the first four innings against the Oakland Oaks. Phillips was in command of San Jose stars and led them to one run and two hits, while his teammates put over enough runs in that time to get him credit for the game. The Seals finished for the game, and the final score was 7 to 2. Schnell started for San Jose and was touched for five runs and six hits in four innings.

SUBS AND SENATORS TIE

SACRAMENTO, March 28.—Extra inning ball games are getting to be a regular habit here. Yesterday afternoon, the Senators and the Sacramento team tied 14 to 14 in the eighth inning. ## Fremont-Hollywood Game Is Postponed; to Be Played Here

The big basketball game scheduled to take place at Hollywood tomorrow afternoon between the Hollywood high and Fremont high team of Oakland, has been postponed until April 6, which will be one week from tomorrow. The game will be played here at either the Oakland auditorium or Larnum gymnasium in Berkeley.

The game is to decide the state high school basketball championship. The Hollywood team having carried off the honors for the southern part of the state and Fremont, the honors for the northern division.

The Hollywood team was unable to guarantee the local champions their expenses so rather than take a chance of making the trip at a loss to the players themselves, it was decided to call the game off and play it here next Saturday. Had the game been played tomorrow, the Fremont team would have been minus the services of one of the best players in the state, and the chances are that he will not be able to participate in next Saturday's game. If it is found impossible for them to get into the game, Harold Anderson, the star utility player, will probably be shunted into his place.

Woodward at Head of Committee for Big Time Thursday

The outdoor sports committee, one of the best bunch of boosters in Oakland, headed by C. LeRoy Butler and assisted by members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, expect to do many big things this year.

The sports committee is ready to get behind the Defenders' association and help in raising the $10,000 for the fund. The sports committee in co-operation with the War Camp Community Service have just closed a profitable baseball engagement for the benefit of the Mare Island barracks.

F. H. Woodward is active on the baseball end, taking charge of the entertainment of all visiting ball teams during the 1915 Coast league season. A committee to assist him in the opening Coast league program here next Thursday has been appointed which includes Messrs. Butler, Horvinski and Anderson.

Those acting with Chairman Butler for other entertainments are Messrs. Woodward, De Lisle, Harrison Clay, Cal Ewing, H. A. Anderson, Max Horvinski, Alex. Stewart, Ray E. Nash, Walter Christie, J. J. Pease, Chester Grummett, John P. Maxwell, J. J. Rosborough, Kearns, Martin, Brazier, Shand, etc.

Pat Kihullen Quits Crockett for a Job in Local Shipyard

Crockett has lost Pat Kihullen, the peppery little catcher who piloted the sugar-town players to victory in the race for the Oakland TRIBUNE pennant in the mid-winter league. Kihullen has left his Crockett job and is getting ready to go to work in the Hanlon shipyards, bearing out the story in the TRIBUNE that the Hanlon boys are out for one of the best batteries in the shipbuilders' league. There is a possibility that Kihullen may join the Marines, but just at present the shipyard job seems to have the inside track.

COUNTY LEAGUERS MEET TONIGHT

A meeting of the Alameda County league managers and directors will be held at Spaulding's Pan Room, in Fourteenth street, at 8 o'clock tonight, and with a couple of teams showing signs of not being any too willing to stick in the league, it might be that a new club or that the Oakland Commission Merchants will try for a place, and Joe Vitt's Grays will be on hand seeking to get their team in. So there need not be any worry about the county league sticking together.

ADVENTISTS MEET IN CONFERENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Delegates and lay members from all parts of the world are here to attend the quadrennial conference of the Seventh Day Adventists which began here today and will continue through April 14. As these conferences are held only once every four years, great importance is attached to them by the denomination. A number of smaller conferences will run concurrently, including the North American Division Conference and California Conference of Seventh Day Adventists.

Problems affecting the educational system of the entire denomination will be discussed, and a report on the different foreign nations will join with the American delegates in considering these problems for the improvement of the school system. This system consists of 824 primary schools and 68 academies and colleges, which have an enrollment of more than 150,000 pupils.

The Young People's Missionary Volunteer department, which has a society in practically every church in America, and in many of these foreign countries, also is holding a convention, with Prof. M. E. Kern, the world's secretary, as chairman.

The Religious Literature Association, with Prof. D. S. Longacre, of Washington, D. C., as chairman, will be holding a convention, the program consisting of the reading of papers and discussions has been planned, with special attention to important subjects taking the leading parts.

One of the features of the convention will be a series of lectures on the subject of "The Future of the Church," which has been entered at the post-office as a regular periodical and has a circulation of 15,000 to 20,000 copies daily.

APPROVE RATING

Word of the approval of new classification ratings by the Interstate Commerce Commission, affecting territory west of the Mississippi, was received today by the Chamber of Commerce. According to Traffic Manager L. W. Bishop of the chamber, the decision is merely a formal approval of past rulings made by the commission, and is a legal matter. It does not, he says, bring any new angles into the present shipping rates to and from Oakland.

DOCK & BECK

The schooner Albert Meyer and A. F. Coats, which were being towed by the tugboat, broke apart during a recent gale and were wrecked. They were towed off, and are on the beach, where they are being dismantled. The tugboat, which was damaged by the breaking of the cable and was unable to work in the rough weather, was unable to unload the cargo at Kalamazoo, as the weather would not permit, so it was unloaded at another port, and will be sent by other craft.

ELECTRICALLY CHARGED WATER KILLS WORKMAN

BERKELEY, March 28.—Edward Whittman, an employee of the National Pipe and Steel Co., was accidentally electrocuted today when he stepped into some water in which electric wiring had become short-circuited, while he was inspecting a tank at the Peet Soap Works, Sixth and Carlton streets, West Berkeley. Whittman was rendered unconscious by the heavy shock of electricity which passed through his body. He was taken from the tank and efforts made to resuscitate him continued for almost two hours. The efforts were futile.

Mrs. Whittman, the widow, is ill, and the physician in attendance fears that the news of her husband's death may bring about a release, with the thought that the loss of her only son, Whittman and his wife are at the El Comodoro apartments in Oakland. He was 35 years of age.

DEATH CALLS

PIONEER WOMAN

ALAMEDA, March 29.—Mrs. Sarah Glasson, widow of the late Josiah Glasson, died last night at the home of her son, Frank, 1000 E. 12th St., Alameda. She was 82 years of age.

Mrs. Glasson was a native of Cornwall, England, and with her husband was one of the early settlers in Nevada county, California, where they made their home for many years. After the children were grown Mr. and Mrs. Glasson came to this city.

The dead woman was 78 years of age and is survived by five children, Mrs. William Glasson of San Jose, W. J. Vollmar of this city, Mrs. James B. Treddwell of Berkeley, Josiah Glasson of Idaho, and Frank Glasson of San Jose.

Beside the children, the dead woman is survived by eleven grandchildren, four of whom are now serving the country's colors.

Carl James Vollmar of this city is at Camp Fremont with the 380 Engineers; his brother, James Vollmar, enlisted in the naval reserve and now is in charge of a construction camp at San Pedro; and another brother, John Vollmar, another brother, is at Mare Island.

Donald Treddwell of Berkeley, and Elbert Treddwell, also grandsons of Mrs. Glasson, are in the United States army.

The body will be brought to this city for burial, and a definite funeral arrangement has yet been made.

SPANISH COURSE OFFERED BY U. C.

Because the war will naturally increase our business with South America young business men and women of the city are anxious to become familiar with the Spanish language. For this reason the University of California Extension Division is planning to start new classes in Spanish. A class in Spanish for beginners will be organized in Oakland on Monday evening, April 1, at 7:30 o'clock in Room 294 of the Technical High School, the class to meet on Monday and Thursday evenings. A class in Spanish, conversation for more advanced students will be started Wednesday evening, April 3, at 7:30 o'clock in Room 294, Technical High School.

Dr. Alejandro Alvarez, a South American diplomat and permanent member of the League of Nations, who is lecturing at the University of California on American International Questions says: "The German knows Spanish by the time he reaches the Spanish-American republic, but the Englishman and American does not. That gives the German an enormous advantage. The Americas, North, Central and South, belong together; they will be long together still more in the future, and we want to trade with you, but you must be willing to meet us half-way—study our language and know it when you come to see us, study our ways."

FIGHTING MEN GREATLY AIDED BY RED CROSS

The American Red Cross, during the month of February, supplied 475,000 meals to the fighting men of France from eleven canteens on lines of communication. In the same period the Department of Military Affairs of the Red Cross from its 14 rolling canteens at the front supplied 439,000 drinks to soldiers.

Major James H. Perkins, American Red Cross Commissioner for Europe, who just made his headquarters at Washington, says that 1000 cases, each containing 122 cartons of tobacco and cigarettes, were distributed to United States soldiers last month. Perkins' men also received from the Red Cross Bureau of Postcards to Hospitals 100,000 printed postcards, 14,000 muslin pajamas, 25,500 handkerchiefs, 13,000 socks and 5100 shirts.

OPEN REST STATIONS.
During February three rest stations on the line of communication and one emergency canteen were opened for service. At these places soldiers who are on leave are supplied with food by the Red Cross woman workers who have hot coffee and chocolate ready at all hours of the day or night. Each station is feeding about 600 men a day.

Other items of comfort distributed by the Military Supply Service of the Red Cross to soldiers during February include: 5500 pairs of socks, 3910 sweaters, 1950 ponchos, 4000 pairs of gloves, 1110 mufflers and 13,050 comfort bags. In addition 30000 bottles, 11,500 cigarettes and 24,000 newspapers were distributed to camps and base hospitals. At one of the large aviation camps the Red Cross furnished a band with a complete set of musical instruments. At a point near the coast Major Perkins reports a hospital was opened for men of the navy. He has also arranged for the housing of convalescent officers and nurses on the Riviera.

GIVEN MUSICAL KITS.
That the soldiers will be kept abreast of the latest musical hits from home 37 phonographs and five pianos have been installed at new rest rooms and hospitals and camps.

Farms and truck gardens near seven base hospitals have been leased to be worked by convalescent soldiers and the vegetables will be given to the hospitals. To 1165 hospitals throughout France the American Red Cross through the Hospital Supply Service has sent 257,864 articles weighing 234,722 pounds. During February also the metropolitan canteens of the Red Cross supplied food and drink to 440,000 men.

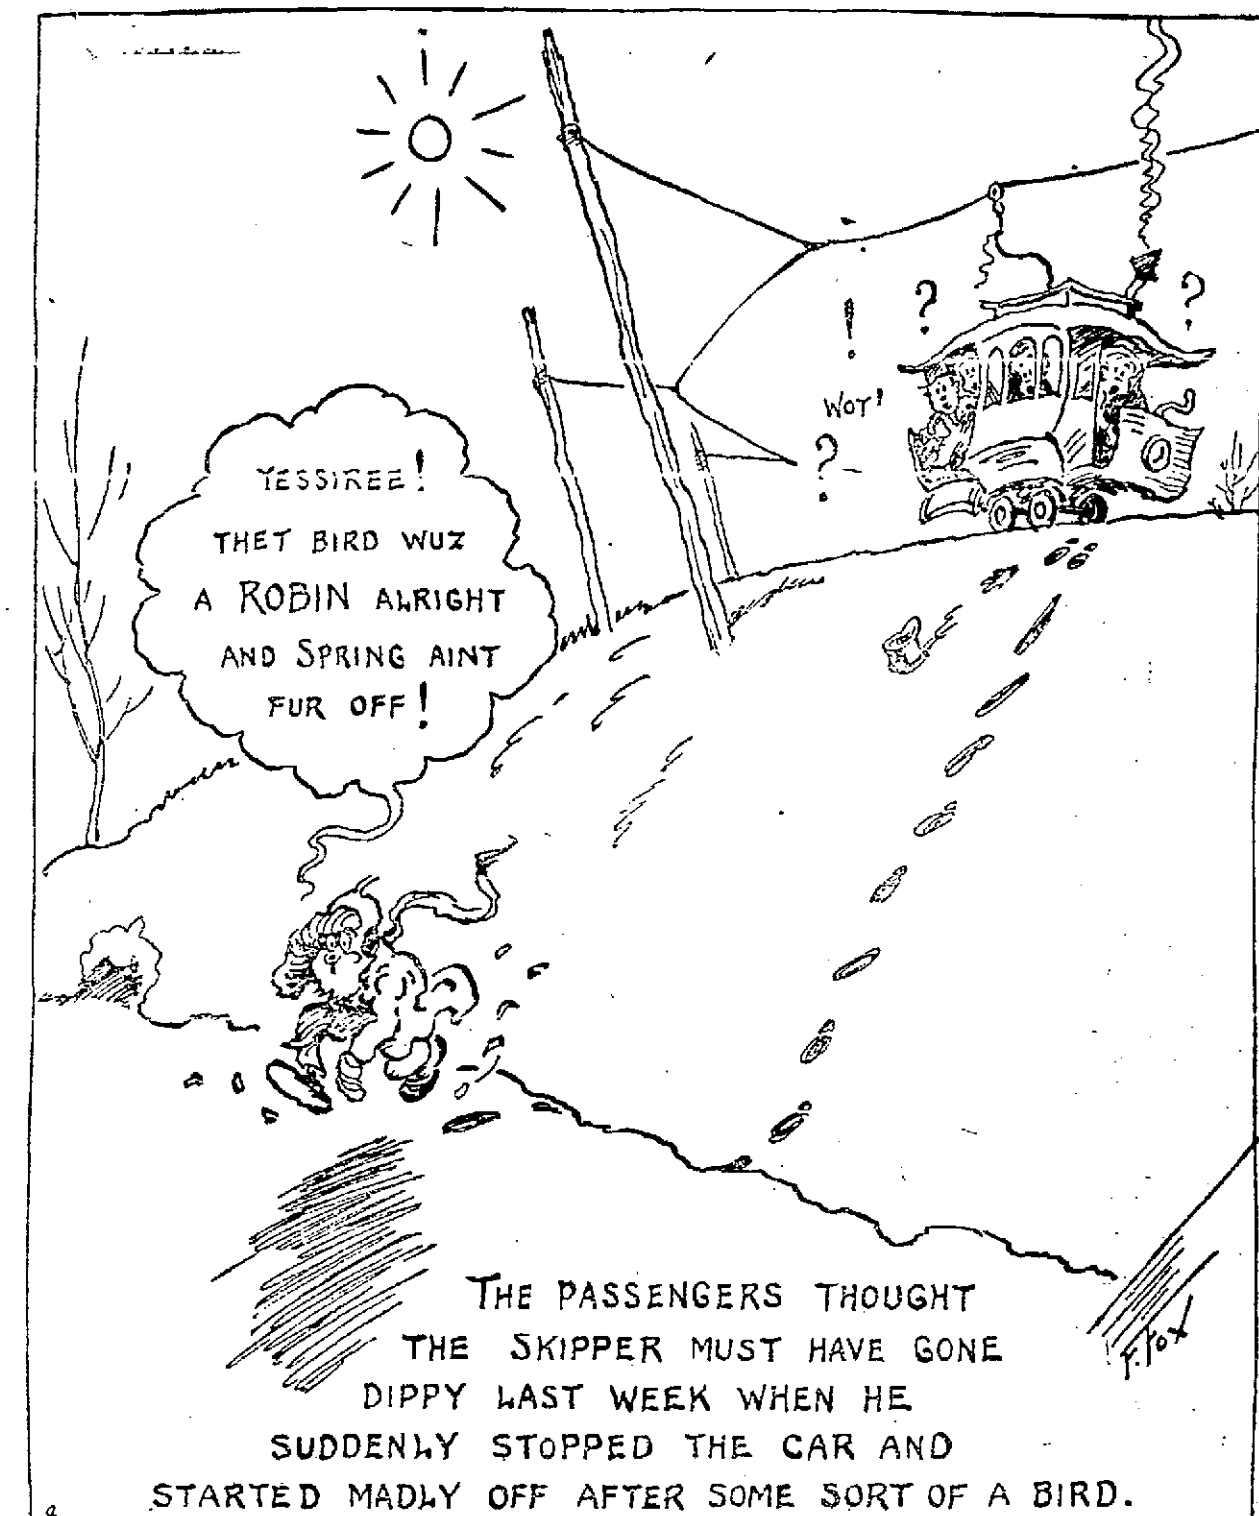

The second Institute of Home Service will be conducted in San Francisco for the Red Cross by the University of California from April 15 to April 18.

The purpose of such institutes is the immediate training of workers for the home service of the Red Cross chapters, either as volunteers or as employees. This service, which consists of visiting, planning for and assisting the dependent families of our own and our allies' soldiers and sailors, is daily becoming a more important activity of the Red Cross. The institute will be conducted under the directorship of Professor S. Blum, Dr. Louise Morrow of the University will be supervisor of field work. There will be two weeks of lectures by experts followed by three weeks of practical field work with selected social agencies. The sixth week will be devoted to a series of conferences at which the students will discuss with the respective lecturers the problems encountered in the field work. The number of students will be limited to 25. Applications for admission should be addressed to Professor S. Blum, director of Home Service Institute, 942 Market street, San Francisco. As there were many more candidates for admission to the first institute than could be admitted, early filing of applications is advised. There will be a registration fee of $3.

REWARD OFFERED
A reward of $100 has been offered by Sheriff Frank Barnett for the capture of G. Camacho of San Leandro, who was murdered in his saloon at 1102 East Fourteenth street on March 15. Evidence secured by the police indicated that two men entered the saloon, ordered steam beer and attacked the proprietor while he was serving it from the keg. He is believed to have struggled with the man who was holding him and to have been shot by the other man. Two men, one tall and the other slight, were seen lo-

HUN TRENCHES ARE ENTERED BY U.S. PATROL

By HENRY G. WALES, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 29.—An American patrol on the front north of Toul crossed No Man's Land at daybreak, finding an empty German listening post hidden in a clump of bushes. The patrol proceeded as far as the German's barbed wire, which they began to cut.

The second belt of wire proved to be electrified, and some of the Americans were slightly shocked.

The Americans were discovered by German snipers, who began firing, but none of the Americans were struck.

CARRY BACK BOY.

While the Americans were cutting the first strands of German wire they came upon the body of a French soldier. It was carried back to No Man's Land and given decent burial.

Three patrols were on duty all night in No Man's Land without encountering any of the enemy.

A reconnaissance group, consisting of two American officers and four men, spent three and a half hours, from 8:30 a. m. until noon, reconnoitering German positions. They verified that the Bavarian reserve divisions opposing the Americans have not been shifted to the British battle-front.

Lemons Whiten and Beautify the Skin! Make Cheap Lotion

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon pulp through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in. Then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier. Just try it! Make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful for rough, red hands.

Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.—Advertisement.

The sponsors for the big benefit theater party which will be given at the Macdonough theater next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the east bay parlors of the Native Daughters of the Golden West for the Mills scholarship fund include many of the alumnae of Mills College. They are working with the Native Daughters to insure a tremendous attendance. The colors of the college will be very much in evidence and the affair in a way will be a reunion of former students of the school.

In a letter to the grand parlor of Native Daughters emphasis is laid upon the importance of raising the $5000 needed in order to obtain the scholarship. The plan is to select a native daughter at every meeting of the grand parlor for the scholarship and it is hoped to have the money raised before the next meeting.

RUSHED TO FRONT

PARIS, March 29.—Paris is practically emptied of officers and soldiers today, the call to the front clearing the streets and restaurants of the familiar uniforms.

Their places are rapidly being taken by refugees from the Picardy battle zone, men, women and children whose home districts have been twice overrun by the enemy, but who are still waiting for the return of their loved ones.

They are waiting about the corner before the murder.
